Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta,2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture

South Asia and its Others Atreyee Phukan,V.G. Julie Rajan,2020-10-27 The essays in South Asia and Its Others Reading the Exotic reveal fresh perspectives on the notion of exoticism in South Asia and also challenge and extend existing scholarship in the broader discourse of what constitutes South Asia Significantly the anthology considers how the phenomenon of exoticization may be interpreted as a strategic methodology utilized by writers of South Asian descent to examine critically both the post colonialist ramifications of casteism religious intolerance and gender violence across differing cultural contexts within the region and how current perceptions of native and diasporic South Asian subjects problematize ideologies of authenticity across Western Eastern divides The papers in this collection show how authors of South Asian ethnicity construct their own version of an exotic South Asia globally and the colonialist discourse of exocitism is employed as a discursive tool that uncovers the ambiguity that continues to mark the marginality of identities even today behind independent India a diverse and multidisciplinary group of scholars decided to reflect on India's biography. The papers are grouped into five sections. Papers in section 1 look at India from a historical perspective from the direction of literature and language from the perspective of representations of Indian culture and with a Dalit voice. The second section entitled Economy in Transition has papers covering industry, agriculture, welfare, services and the corporate sector. The next section examines the adopted constitutional order, institutions and processes that make up the polity and the normative agenda for the future. Papers in section four look at such dominant themes as caste, gender, a uniform civil code and the media in a globalised world. The last section Goa in Transition looks at a neglected region in India from Goa's finances and its environment to politics.
