Constructive Drinking Perspectives On Drink From Anthropology:

Constructive Drinking Mary Douglas, 2003 First published in 1987 Constructive Drinking is a series of original case studies organized into three sections based on three major functions of drinking The three constructive functions are that drinking has a real social role in everyday life that drinking can be used to construct an ideal world and that drinking is a significant economic activity The case studies deal with a variety of exotic drinks Constructive Drinking International Commission on Anthropology of Food and Food Problems, 1989 Encyclopedia of Medical Anthropology Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, 2003-12-31 Medical practitioners and the ordinary citizen are becoming more aware that we need to understand cultural variation in medical belief and practice The more we know how health and disease are managed in different cultures the more we can recognize what is culture bound in our own medical belief and practice The Encyclopedia of Medical Anthropology is unique because it is the first reference work to describe the cultural practices relevant to health in the world's cultures and to provide an overview of important topics in medical anthropology No other single reference work comes close to matching the depth and breadth of information on the varying cultural background of health and illness around the world More than 100 experts anthropologists and other social scientists have contributed their firsthand experience of medical cultures from around the world Sport, Beer, and Gender Lawrence A. Wenner, Steven J. Jackson, 2009 Contemporary gendered identity Book Jacket Alcohol, Gender and Culture Dimitra Gefou-Madianou, 2002-01-04 Europeans constitute 12 and a half per cent of the world's population but consume 50 per cent of the recorded world production alcohol and this consumption plays a significant role in the cultural religious and social identities of these countries The contributors show how different groups define the proper use of alcohol how State policies may effect drinking behaviour and highlight how beverages and comestibles must be seen in relation to each other From this is it shown how important socio cultural distinctions are made between and within communities gender relations ethnic groups and socio economic groups and within religious ideologies what one drinks how one drinks with whom and where all influence not how alcoholic substances are regarded but how social relations are experienced Alcohol Gender and Culture clearly demonstrates how the social construction of drinking may provide an analytical tool with which to approach different socio cultural groups and illustrates how any cultural group can be compared to another by its attitudes to alcohol It will be invaluable reading for students and lecturers of anthropology cultural history and gender studies Alcohol and Temperance in Modern History Jack S. Blocker Jr., David M. Fahey, Ian R. Tyrrell, 2003-12-17 A comprehensive encyclopedia on all aspects of the production consumption and social impact of alcohol Alcohol and Temperance in Modern History An International Encyclopedia spans the history of alcohol production and consumption from the development of distilled spirits and modern manufacturing and distribution methods to the present Authoritative and unbiased it brings together the work of hundreds of experts from a variety of disciplines with an emphasis on the extraordinary wealth of scholarship developed in the past several decades Its nearly 500 alphabetically organized entries range beyond the principal alcoholic beverages and major producers and retailers to explore attitudes toward alcohol in various countries and religions traditional drinking occasions and rituals and images of drinking and temperance in art painting literature and drama Other entries describe international treaties and organizations related to alcohol production and distribution global consumption patterns and research and treatment institutions as well as temperance prohibition and antiprohibitionist efforts worldwide
