Construire La Paix Sur Le Terrain Mode D:

Construire la paix sur le terrain Luc Reyhler, Thania Paffenholz, 2000 Les livres consacrés à la guerre ne manquent pas. Recits des plus grandes batailles, portraits de héros, tudes de tel ou tel conflit. La matière semble inépuisable. Mais jusqu'à présent peu d'attention a été accordée aux acteurs de terrain, tous ceux qui tentent d'allumer des brasiers ou qui participent une fois que les armes se sont tuées, la remise sur rails d'un pays d'après-guerre. Construire la paix sur le terrain. Mode d'emploi vient combler cette lacune. Comment sélectionner les partants qui s'envoient vers le front de la paix? Quelle formation avant de secourir des populations traumatisées et humiliées? Comment expliquer des volontaires dévoués et enthousiastes qu'ils ont de nombreux devoirs et responsabilités? Par quel moyen promouvoir la tolérance et le dialogue? Construit autour de trois axes, la préparation au terrain, le travail sur place, comment y survivre, le présent ouvrage introduit d'abord les concepts et outils dans la perspective d'une paix durable. La seconde partie se concentre sur six activités spécifiques: la médiation, l'observation des droits humains et la transition démocratique, la coopération au développement, la formation des acteurs locaux, la réconciliation, la démobilisation. Dans la dernière partie sont enfin abordés les problèmes qu'il s'agit d'affronter sur place quotidiennement: stress, angoisse, coordination, rumeurs, dilemmes moraux. Vritable livre de chevet pour les acteurs de terrain, les responsables politiques ou d'organisation, mais destiné aussi tout citoyen intéressé par ces questions, cet ouvrage pratique et didactique se veut une contribution concrète pour un monde plus pacifique.

The 'Local Turn' in Peacebuilding Joakim Ojendal, Isabell Schierenbeck, Caroline Hughes, 2018-10-11 Contemporary practices of international peacebuilding and post conflict reconstruction are often unsatisfactory. There is now a growing awareness of the significance of local governments and local communities as an integrated part of peacebuilding in order to improve quality and enhance precision of interventions. In spite of this, the local is rarely a key factor in peacebuilding, hence everyday peace is hardly achieved. The aim of this volume is threefold: firstly, it illuminates the substantial reasons for working with a more localised approach in politically volatile contexts. Secondly, it consolidates a growing debate on the significance of the local in these contexts. Thirdly, it problematizes the often too swiftly used concept of the local and critically discusses to what extent it is at all feasible to integrate this into macro-oriented and securitized contexts. This is a unique volume tackling the local turn of peacebuilding in a comprehensive and critical way. This book was published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly.

Luc Reyhler: A Pioneer in Sustainable Peacebuilding Architecture Luc Reyhler, Arnim Langer, 2020-05-07 This book provides a unique personal perspective on the field of peace research. It not only highlights Luc Reyhler's significant contributions to the theory and praxis of sustainable peacebuilding, but also offers important reflections on the evolution of peace research as an independent discipline. The central concept of this book and of Reyhler's academic career for that matter is sustainable peacebuilding architecture. Reyhler introduced this concept in order to draw attention to the architectural principles and considerations that have to be addressed in sustainable peacebuilding processes. Reyhler's work on sustainable peacebuilding architecture has been groundbreaking and has not lost any of its relevance in the twenty first century By bringing together Reychler s seminal texts on sustainable peacebuilding architecture the current book aims to offer academics students and policymakers an essential guide to understanding studying and applying this crucial concept Provides a unique personal view of the development of peace research Lists the necessary building blocks for sustainable peacebuilding Offers tools for monitoring and evaluating interventions Discusses the scientific nature and often provocative findings of peace research Discusses ten lessons learned and the future Peace Research III

Conflict Resolution and Status Céline Francis,2011 The dispute between Georgia and Abkhazia is not a conflict of equals In international conflicts adversaries may differ de facto on the ground in terms of population territory and capability among other things As internationally recognized states however they have equal de jure status and fears that inviting the other side to the negotiating table might be construed as recognition for example rarely intrude The question of status does pose problems however when a conflict is being fought between a recognized state and an unrecognized entity and these problems may contribute to increase the intractability of such conflicts This study explores how and to what extent the difference in status between a sovereign state and an unrecognized entity hinders conflict resolution activities Based on intensive fieldwork and unedited negotiation material the book provides an in depth analysis of the negotiations informal dialogues and grassroots activities that took place in Abkhazia and Georgia between 1989 and 2008
