Consulting With Children:

Consulting with Children Under Five Sarah Davies, Miranda Thurston, 2006 Young Children's Rights Priscilla Alderson, 2000-01-01 Priscilla Alderson examines the issue of young children's rights starting with the question of how the 1989 UN Convention on the Rights of the Child applies to the youngest children from birth to eight years of age The question of finding a balance between young children's rights to protection to provision resources and services and to participation expressing their views being responsible is discussed The author suggests that in the belief we are looking after their best interests we have become overprotective of children and deny them the freedom to be expressive creative and active and that improving the way adults and children communicate is the best way of redressing that balance She considers some of the problems adults may have communicating with children and offers practical suggestions as to how these can be overcome Young Children's Rights is published by Jessica Kingsley for Save the Children the leading international voluntary organisation for children in the UK who saw the need for this book and commissioned the work This readable informative and thought provoking book is a compelling invitation to rethink our attitudes to young children's rights in the light of new theories research and practical evidence about children's daily lives It will be of interest to anyone who works with young children Consulting on Children's Services Rachel Adams, 2007 Statement of Ethical Practice for Consulting with Children and Young People Australian Capital Territory.
