Consuming Keats:

Consuming Keats S. Wootton, 2006-02-07 This book explores the impact of Keats on authors and artists from 1821 to the end of the First World War It examines the work of authors including Shelley Browning and Thomas Hall Caine and artists Holman Hunt and Rossetti The study also includes tributes to Keats by women authors and artists such as Christina Rossetti and Jessie Marion King

John Keats's Landscapes Luisa Camaiora, 2014-04-03

Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era Andrew Radford, 2017-03-02 In tracing those deliberate and accidental Romantic echoes that reverberate through the Victorian age into the beginning of the twentieth century this collection acknowledges that the Victorians decided for themselves how to define what is Romantic The essays explore the extent to which Victorianism can be distinguished from its Romantic precursors or whether it is possible to conceive of Romanticism without the influence of these Victorian definitions

Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era reassesses Romantic literature's immediate cultural and literary legacy in the late nineteenth century showing how the Victorian writings of Matthew Arnold Wilkie Collins the Brontës the Brownings Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens Gerard Manley Hopkins Thomas Hardy and the Rossettis were instrumental in shaping Romanticism as a cultural phenomenon Many of these Victorian writers found in the biographical literary and historical models of Chatterton Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats and Wordsworth touchstones for reappraising their own creative potential and artistic identity Whether the Victorians affirmed or revolted against the Romanticism of their early years their attitudes towards Romantic values enriched and intensified the personal creative and social dilemmas described in their art Taken together the essays in this collection reflect on current critical dialogues about literary periodisation and contribute to our understanding of how these contemporary debates stem from Romanticism's inception in the Victorian age

Soft-Shed Kisses Małgorzata Łuczyńska-Hołdys, 2013-07-26 The femme fatale appears with unceasing regularity in the texts of major poets of the nineteenth century She symbolises an intractable mystery a refusal to be defined and a fierce attempt to exist outside the established gender system

Soft Shed Kisses Re-visioning the Femme Fatale in English Poetry of the 19th Century interrogates the construction and use of the fatal woman motif in the poetry of canonical male writers of the times both Romantic and Victorian

Subsequent chapters investigate a variety of poems by John Keats Percy Bysshe Shelley Alfred Tennyson Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Charles Algernon Swinburne in which the femme fatale surfaces as the most important character

Close readings of poetry are enriched by an examination of the same motif in visual art set against the vivid cultural background of the Victorian era
