Contactees Die Young:

Murder by the Book? Sally Rowena Munt, 2003-09-02 A thorough and thoroughly enjoyable look at the genre of the feminist crime novel in Britain and the United States A pioneering work in the field and an indispensable guide for readers and scholars of the genre

The Gay Detective Novel Judith A. Markowitz, 2015-02-16 Gertrude Stein called it the only really modern novel form that has come into existence yet the mystery genre was a century old before it featured its first gay main character in a novel Since then gay and lesbian detective fiction has been one of the fastest growing segments of the genre It incorporates gay and lesbian cultural elements and offers crossover appeal Its authors call upon a century of development in the mystery genre while providing new more accurate images of lesbians and gay men than generally found in mainstream literature and popular media This groundbreaking study of gay and lesbian detective fiction examines mystery series and historically significant stand alone novels published since the early 1960s Part I is an overview that describes how these novels make gay and lesbian life visible and forge new powerful images It also examines how they fit into the larger history of mystery fiction The series analyses in Part II are grouped according to the type of main character police officer private investigator amateur sleuth etc Each section discusses main and secondary characters of that type characteristic themes for the group and more The analyses of individual series cover main characters themes plot points and other elements Comments from authors interviewed for this book play a central role in those analyses Part III lists series spanning themes e g homophobia the closet gay marriage and the novels and series that address each of those themes

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction
