Contemporary British Literature:

Contemporary British Fiction Richard Lane, Rod Mengham, Philip Tew, 2003-01-31 This important new book provides a comprehensive introduction to British fiction from 1979 to the present. The volume outlines the main developments in contemporary fiction and engages with key themes such as cultural identity, gender, myth and history, postcolonialism and urban culture. In a series of lively and accessible essays, key critics introduce a broad range of leading British writers including Salman Rushdie, Jeanette Winterson, Will Self, Pat Barker, Kazuo Ishiguro, Martin Amis and Zadie Smith. Offering an illuminating analysis and contextualization of British fiction today, this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of contemporary literature.

Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, 2008-08-27 This critical guide introduces major novelists and themes in British fiction from 1975 to 2005. It engages with concepts such as postmodernism, feminism, gender and the postcolonial and examines the place of fiction within broader debates in contemporary culture. A comprehensive Introduction provides a historical context for the study of contemporary British fiction by detailing significant social, political and cultural events. This is followed by five chapters organised around the core themes: 1 Narrative Forms, 2 Contemporary Ethnicities, 3 Gender and Sexuality, 4 History, Memory and Writing and 5 Narratives of Cultural Space.

London in Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, 2016-07-28 Contemporary writers such as Peter Ackroyd, J. G. Ballard, John King, Ian McEwan, Will Self, Iain Sinclair and Zadie Smith have been registering the changes to the social and cultural London landscape for years. This volume brings together their vivid representations of the capital. Uniting the readings are themes such as the relationship between the country and the city, the capacity of satirical forms to encompass the real, London's spatio-temporal transformations and emergences, the relationship between multiculturalism and universalism, the underground as the spatial equivalent of London's unconsciousness and the suburbs as the frontier of the future. The volume creates a framework for new approaches to the representation of London required by the unprecedented social uncertainties of recent years, an invaluable contribution to studies of contemporary writing about London.

Intercultural Voices in Contemporary British Literature L. Sauerberg, 2001-11-12 During the last decades of the twentieth century it has become increasingly difficult to consider British literature as national or mainstream. The book investigates contemporary fiction and poetry written in or relating to Britain and uncovers a distinct sense of a new and different national and social reality. Tracing literary effects of migration, globalization and regionalization, the book focuses on literary tradition as an inspiration or object of hate and frustration for the exploration and expression of post-Imperial experiences.

A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction James F. English, 2005-12-30 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction offers an authoritative overview of contemporary British fiction in its social, political and economic contexts. Focuses on the fiction that has emerged since the late 1970s, roughly since the start of the Thatcher era. Comprises original essays from major scholars. Topics range from the rise and fall of the postcolonial novel to controversies over the celebrity author. The emphasis is on the whole fiction scene from bookstores and prizes to the changing economics of film adaptation Enables students to read contemporary works of British fiction with a much clearer sense of where they fit within British cultural life

Contemporary British Literature John Matthews Manly, Edith Rickert, 1921 Posting the Male, 2022-06-08 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion Contemporary British Literature Fred B. Millett, John Matthews Manly, 1939

Contemporary British Literature Fred B. Millett, 1945 Contemporary British Literature Fred Benjamin Millett, John Matthews Manly, 1943 Contemporary British Fiction and the Artistry of Space David James, 2008-01-01 A rigorous but accessible account of the interface between landscape and style and form in contemporary British fiction

Contemporary British Literature and Urban Space K. Duff, 2014-12-03 Looking at writers such as Will Self Hani Kureishi JG Ballard and Iain Sinclair Kim Duff's new book examines contemporary British literature and its depiction of the city after the time of Thatcher and mass privatization This lively study is an important and engaging work for students and scholars alike
