Conservation in Practice Andrew Warren, Frank Barrie Goldsmith, 1976     Posthumanism in Practice Christine Daigle, Matthew Hayler, 2023-01-12 Problematic assumptions which see humans as special and easily defined as standing apart from animals plants and microbiota both consciously and unconsciously underpin scientific investigation arts practice curation education and research across the social sciences and humanities This is the case particularly in those traditions emerging from European and Enlightenment philosophies Posthumanism disrupts these traditional humanist outlooks and interrogates their profound shaping of how we see ourselves our place in the world and our role in its protection In Posthumanism in Practice artists researchers educators and curators set out how they have developed and responded to posthumanist ideas across their work in the arts sciences and humanities and provide examples and insights to support the exploration of posthumanism in how we can think create and live In capturing these ideas Posthumanism in Practice shows how posthumanist thought can move beyond theory inform action and produce new artefacts effects and methods that are more relevant and more useful for the incoming realities for all life in the 21st century     Conservation in Practice A. Warren, 1976     Situational Analysis in Practice Adele E. Clarke, Rachel Washburn, Carrie Frieze, 2022-04-19 Situational Analysis SA uses analytic maps of the situation processes and relations identified using approaches pioneered in Grounded Theory Creator of the method award winning sociologist Adele E Clarke with Rachel Washburn and Carrie Frieze show how the method can be and has been used in a variety of critical qualitative studies The entirely new second edition of this book offers several chapters on the method and new introductory material from the editors about developments in using SA in qualitative inquiry Part I introduces readers to the method of SA discussing recent developments in the field Part II offers five new chapters about various facets of the SA method including a history of Grounded Theory and Situational Analysis SA as critical pragmatist interactionism using SA in managing a mixed methods project and SA mapping in the social policy classroom and in clinical counseling as innovatively collaborative analysis Part III offers six new exemplary research articles drawn from energy research and international relations public health research methods disabled access to public transportation participation in conservation in a biosphere reserve and PTSD and the military Authors reflections on their experiences in using the method are also included These carefully selected new readings vividly demonstrate how widely this method has travelled successfully meeting the needs of diverse researchers seeking an innovative relational approach to critically analyzing a wide array of data Situational Analysis in Practice will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students practicing the SA method across the social sciences including sociology and healthcare among other disciplines as well as research scholars interested in qualitative inquiry     Sustainability and the Rights of Nature in Practice Cameron La Follette, Chris Maser, 2019-09-30 Sustainability and the Rights of Nature in Practice is the much needed complementary volume to Sustainability and the Rights of Nature An Introduction CRC Press May 2017 The first book laid out the international precursors for the Rights of Nature doctrine and described the changes required to create a Rights of Nature framework that supports Nature in a sustainable relationship rather than as an exploited resource This follow up work provides practitioners from diverse cultures around the world an opportunity to describe their own projects successes and challenges in moving toward a legal personhood for Nature It includes contributions from Nepal New Zealand Canadian Native American cultures Kiribati the United States and Scotland amongst others by practitioners working on projects that can be integrated into a Rights of Nature framework The authors also tackle required changes to shift the paradigm such as thinking of Nature in a sacred manner reorienting Nature s rights and human rights the conceptualization of restoration and the removal of large scale energy infrastructure Curated by experts in the field this expansive collection of papers will prove invaluable to a wide array of policymakers and administrators environmental advocates and conservation groups tribal land managers and communities seeking to create or maintain a sustainable relationship with Nature Features Addresses existing projects that are successfully implementing a Rights of Nature legal framework including the difference it makes in practice Presents the voices of practitioners not often recognized who are working in innovative ways towards sustainability and the need to grant a voice to Nature in human decision making Explores new ideas from the insights of a diverse range of cultures on how to grant legal personhood to Nature restrain damaging human activity create true sustainability and glimpse how a Rights of Nature paradigm can work in different societies Details the potential pitfalls to Rights of Nature governance and land use decisions from people doing the work as well as their solutions Discusses the basic human needs for shelter food and community in entirely new ways in relationship with Nature rather than in conquest of it Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429505959>
