Consideration Of The Justifying Value:

A Consideration of the Justifying Value of a Public Park Frederick Law Olmsted, 1881 Fundamental Considerations in Language Testing Lyle F. Bachman, 1990-06-14 Offers a discussion of the basic concerns which underlie the development and use of language tests Presenting a synthesis of research on testing this book is useful for students on teacher education courses It is also helpful for those professionally involved in designing and administering tests acting as a complement to how to books CONSIDERATION OF THE JUSTIFYING VALUE OF A PUBLIC PARK FREDERICK LAW. OLMSTED, 2019 The Concept of Ideals in Legal Theory Sanne Taekema, 2002-12-31 Talk about law often includes reference to ideals of justice equality or freedom But what do we refer to when we speak about ideals in the context of law This book explores the concept of ideals by combining an investigation of different theories of ideals with a discussion of the role of ideals in law A comparison of the theories of Gustav Radbruch and Philip Selznick leads up to a pragmatist theory of legal ideals which provides an interesting new position in the debate about values in law between legal positivists and natural law thinkers Attention for law's central ideals enables us to understand law's autonomous character while at the same time tracing its connection to societal values Essential reading for anyone interested in the role of values or ideals in law

Landscape Architecture Stephen Child, 1927 The Literary Digest, 1909 A Quarter Century of Value Inquiry Richard T. Hull, 2021-11-01 This volume contains all of the presidential addresses given before the American Society for Value Inquiry since its first meeting in 1970 Contributions are by Richard Brandt Virgil Aldrich John W Davis the late Robert S Hartman James B Wilbur the late William H Werkmeister Robert E Carter the late William T Blackstone Gene James Eva Huel Cadwallader Richard T Hull Norman Bowie Stephen White Burton Leiser Abraham Edel Sidney Axinn Robert Ginsberg Patricia Werhane Lisa M Newton Thomas Magnell Sander Lee John M Abbarno Ruth Miller Lucier and Tom Regan Autobiographical sketches by all of the living contributors and one recently deceased biographical statements of the remainder together with photographic portraits of all the contributors make this volume a unique record of value inquiry during the past quarter century indicates previously unpublished or unpublished in the present form indicates substantial new material has been added The addresses cover diverse topics from broad general ones to value inquiry into literature bioethics and public policy to philosophy of mind to critical studies of other philosophers work defenses of philosophy and of applied ethics individual role and cultural relativism of values The American Society for Value Inquiry is nearing its 25th anniversary Its leadership is elected annually often with a vice president becoming president elect then president then past president a structure that serves to insure a measure of continuity Its members are drawn to the society not by a particularly credo or ideology or philosophical position but by a common interest in questions of value ranging from abstract meta value inquiry to disciplinary and trans disciplinary value inquiry For those who share this range of passions the volume will preserve collect organize and in a number of cases recover material in danger of being lost to them The Presidential Address is a unique genre resembling in some ways a sermon Indeed preparing a presidential address before a philosophical society is often an exercise in developing an exhortation to members to take up a neglected topic to embrace as important a particular viewpoint it may as well be a cautionary to avoid a particular error It is often a dramatic moment as a last act of the presidency having observed closely the trends and winds blowing through the discipline the speaker is afforded the opportunity to hold forth on a topic at once intensely personal and believed to be of wide interest While some societies publish presidential addresses in newsletters or informal proceedings and occasionally in professional bulletins or journals rarely have a substantial bloc of a society s presidential addresses been collected and published under one cover Too often the presidential address is delivered discussed by those present perhaps summarized in a paragraph in a newsletter to members and filed as a fond memory of a moment of honor in the papers of the author sometimes to be forgotten lost discarded or otherwise removed from availability to scholars of the history of philosophy This volume inaugurates a series aiming at preserving presidential and other major addresses before philosophical societies It seeks to be a historical record not only of the address but also of the reflections and recollections of the author It seeks to preserve as a part of the historical record a photograph of the author And with the personal character of an autobiographical statement it seeks to humanize and render lively and real the professi

Respect plays a prominent role in contemporary moral philosophy as well as our every day moral thought Ordinary discussion about morality is often framed in terms of demands for respect or complaints about being disrespected yet basic questions about the concept and role of respect are frequently overlooked Here leading philosophers present their latest ideas and fresh perspectives to point research on the topic in new directions Following an introduction to the historical rise of respect as a central concept in moral discourse Part I addresses the fundamental questions of what respect is its nature and basis Part II then examines questions in moral theory for example what exactly ought to be respected what role respect plays in morality and which different types of respect are appropriate and morally significant Part III concludes with the practical application of requirements of respect with implications for significant moral issues of our time including environmental ethics social justice disability bioethics and more

Creation Ethics David DeGrazia,2012 The ethics of creating or declining to create human beings has been addressed in several contexts debates over abortion and embryo research literature on self creation and discussions of procreative rights and responsibilities genetic engineering and future generations Here for the first time is a sustained scholarly analysis of all of these issues a discussion combining breadth of topics with philosophical depth imagination with current scientific understanding argumentative rigor with accessibility The overarching aim of Creation Ethics is to illuminate a broad array of issues connected with reproduction and genetics through the lens of moral philosophy With novel frameworks for understanding prenatal moral status and human identity and exceptional fairness to those holding different views David DeGrazia sheds new light on the ethics of abortion and embryo research genetic enhancement and prenatal genetic interventions procreation and parenting and decisions that affect the quality of life of future generations Along the way he helpfully introduces personal identity theory and value theory as well as such complex topics as moral status wrongful life and the nonidentity problem The results include a subjective account of human well being a standard for responsible procreation and parenting and a theoretical bridge between consequentialist and nonconsequentialist ethical theories The upshot is a synoptic mostly liberal vision of the ethics of creating human beings
