Considerations On Western Marxism:

Considerations on Western Marxism Perry Anderson, 2016-02-23 This synoptic essay considers the nature and evolution of the Marxist theory that developed in Western Europe after the defeat of the proletarian rebellions in the West and the isolation of the Russian Revolution in the East in the early 1920s It focuses particularly on the work of Lukács, Korsch and Gramsci, Adorno, Marcuse and Benjamin Sartre and Althusser and Della Volpe and Colletti together with other figures within Western Marxism from 1920 to 1975 The theoretical production of each of these thinkers is related simultaneously to the practical fate of working class struggles and to the cultural mutations of bourgeois thought in their time The philosophical antecedents of the various school within this tradition Lukácsian Gramscian Frankfurt Sartrean Althusserian and Della Volpean are compared and the specific innovations of their respective systems surveyed The structural unity of Western Marxism beyond the diversity of its individual thinkers is then assessed in a balance sheet that contrasts its heritage with the tradition of classical Marxism that preceded it and with the commanding problems which will confront any historical materialism to succeed it

Considerations on western marxism Perry Anderson, 1976 Considerations on Western Marxism Perry Anderson, 1976-01-01 Perry Anderson Gregory Elliott, 1998 This first full reconstruction of Perry

Anderson's distinguished career provides an overview of the evolution of the British New Left since 1956 and reveals a great deal about the vicissitudes of Marxist theory and political practice in the era of post-Stalinist communism Gregory Elliott ultimately argues that notwithstanding significant discontinuities in his intellectual development Anderson remains a critically engaged thinker of the intransigent Left a contemporary historian whose commitment to the long view renders him an indispensable commentator on our times Elliott also sketches the collective career of New Left Review one of the most influential international journals of the postwar period

Arguments Within English Marxism Perry Anderson, 2016-02-23 The characteristic form taken by English Marxism since the war has been the study of history No writer exemplifies its achievements better than Edward Thompson whose Making of the English Working Class is probably the most influential single work of historical scholarship by a socialist today An editor of The New Reasoner in 1957-59 a founder of the New Left in 1960 now an eloquent champion of civil rights Thompson has most recently aroused widespread interest with the appearance of his Poverty of Theory which combines philosophical and political polemic with Louis Althusser and powerful advocacy of the historian's craft Arguments Within English Marxism is an assessment of its central theses that relates them to Thompson's major historical writings themselves Thus the role of human agency the part of the conscious choice and active will in history is discussed through consideration of its treatment in The Making of the English Working Class The problems of base and superstructure in historical materialism and of affiliation to values in the past are reviewed in the light of Whigs and Hunters The claims of utopian imagination are illustrated from the findings of William Morris Questions of socialist strategy are broached in part through the articles now collected in Writing by Candlelight Exploring at once differences and convergences between New Left Review and one of its founders the essay concludes by suggesting the virtues of diversity within a common socialist culture

Structure, Agency and Theory Ib Gram-Jensen, 2021-04-20 Structure Agency and Theory challenges common readings of Marx and Engels historical materialism and argues the necessity of abandoning their conception of the dialectic of forces and relations of production as the motive power of historical development and transformations because of its doubtful validity and deterministic implications Instead another fundamental conception in historical materialism the interaction between social circumstances and agency as the motive power of history is accentuated with an emphasis on agents experiences as a causal factor arguing its potential in terms of historical explanation and attempting to spell out some of its strategic implications for revolutionary socialism

Western Marxism José Guilherme Merquior, 1986 In the Tracks of Historical Materialism Perry Anderson, 2016-02-23 What have been the major changes in the intellectual landscape of the left since the mid seventies Have they on balance represented an emancipation or a retreat for socialist culture as a whole In the Tracks of Historical Materialism looks at some of the paradoxes in the evolution of Marxist thought in this period It starts by considering the remarkable and variegated growth of historical materialism in the Anglo American world spreading across a broad field from history to economics politics to literature sociology to philosophy By contrast the same years have seen a drastic recession of Marxist influences in the Latin cultures where it was traditionally strong France or Italy Its main theoretical challengers there proved to be successive forms of structuralism and post structuralism The common coordinates of these tracing the outer bounds of the work of Levi Strauss or Lacan Foucault or Derrida are surveyed and criticized in the light of the inherent limitations of the language model from which they derived In Germany on the other hand the theoretical scene has been largely dominated by the accumulating work of Habermas with its roots in the Frankfurt School Yet Habermas s philosophy also reveals unexpected affinities with the trend of prevalent Parisian concerns in its unifying emphasis on communication while at the same time diverging from them in the constancy of its political commitments The historical background of international class struggles against which these variant fates of Marxism in the West were played out is then explored with special attention to the interconnection between the destinies of Maoism and Eurocommunism What finally is the nature of the relationship between Marxism as a theory and socialism as a goal A conclusion reviews the wider issues posed for the labour movement by the rise of the peace movement and the women s movement and suggests a range of priorities for the further development of Marxist thought in the eighties

The Aesthetic State Josef Chytry, 2024-07-26 Shortly after the middle of the eighteenth century a number of thinkers from the German speaking lands began to create a paradigm drawn from their impressions of a distant historical reality ancient Athens added to it a new mode of thought modern dialectics and at times even paid homage to the ancient Greek deity Dionysos to materialize their longing for an ideal The influence of these forces came to permeate modern German consciousness deifying the concept and activity of art reviving the Platonic and Sanskrit vision of the cosmos as play and aesthetic creation and projecting a way of life and labor that would honor not the commodity but the aesthetic product With rigorous commitment to primary sources and an unflagging critical engagement with the ideas and concrete situations they raise Josef Chytry provides a comprehensive and extensive study of this central motif in German thought from Winckelmann to Marcuse Chytry takes aesthetic state to signify the concentrated modern intellectual movement to revitalize the radical Hellenic tradition of the polis as the site of a beautiful or good life The movement begins with the classicism of Winckelmann Wiemar aesthetic humanism Wieland Herder Goethe and Schiller s formal theory of the aesthetic state and continues through the idealism of the Swabian dialecticians Holderlin Hegel and Schelling and the realism of Marx Wagner and Nietzsche It culminates in the postrealism of Heidegger Marcuse and the aesthetic modernist artist Walter Spies who initiated a dialogue with the non Western theatre state of the isle of Bali Josef Chytry concludes that the future speculation on the ideal of an aesthetic state must come to terms with the postrealist themes of ontological anarchy aesthetic ethos and theatre state In a bold effort to stimulate such speculation Chytry indicates how proponents of the aesthetic state might join forces with Rawlsian political theory to promote further the organon of persuasion that in his view serves as the common fount for the ancient dialectical and contractarian quests for the polis This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989
