Constance Or Solitary Practices:

Constance Lawrence Durrell, 2012-06-12 With the Second World War in full fury Constance must explore the psyche of a mad world in order to save herself and those closest to her in the third volume of the Avignon Quintet Durrell's beautiful Avignon Quintet continues with this harrowing tumultuous installment Here the protagonist is Constance a psychoanalyst and mystic struggling for clarity in a world on fire with war hatred and inexplicable brutality Her quest for sanity takes her through the deserts of Egypt and into the arms of the leader of a suicide cult through war ravaged Poland and finally into ancient Avignon In the fields of southern France Constance sees a religious historical drama come to a close a mysterious narrative that began with the Knights Templar and ends with Hitler's mad grab for power Constance, Or, Solitary Practices Lawrence Durrell, 1982 Constance, Or, Solitary Practices Lawrence Durrell, 2004 This is the central novel in the Avignon Quartet The first chapter continues in Avignon where the previous novel Livia left off It details Constance's blossoming relationship with Sam However as the clouds of war are looming the group depicted in Livia begins to breakup as each character moves on to different parts of Europe Constance, Or, Solitary Practices Lawrence Durrell, 1982

Constance, Or, Solitary Practice Durrell, Lawrence, 1983 Lawrence Durrell's Major Novels, Or, The Kingdom of the Imagination Donald P. Kaczvinsky, 1997-03 Through his use of Gnostic beliefs Durrell destabilizes our notions of the real and suggests that the civilization to emerge out of the ruins of a devastated Europe will not be Christian but Quincunxial Durrell's aesthetic and thematic concerns establish him as a significant indeed central voice in twentieth century British literature His career which spans over five decades links the British High Modernists with the Postmodernists Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Isabelle Keller-Privat, Anne R. Zahlan, 2025-03-15 Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Alexandria to Angkor Wat gathers new essays by international scholars who examine heretical concepts and heterotopian counter spaces in Durrell's thought and writing The volume includes studies of texts set in locations from the Mediterranean to Cambodia with spatial focus ranging from the Egypt of The Alexandria Quartet and of Anatole France's Thaïs to the scattered locations of The Avignon Quintet with stops along the way for the island books and other treatments of wandering and exile in poetry as well as prose The contributors approach Durrell's texts from a variety of perspectives philosophical and intertextual architectural and historical mystical and digital In so doing they expose the deeper echoes set off by his wide ranging literary production and map out the metaphysical literary and aesthetic connections that account for Durrell's impact on our understanding of those twentieth century social and cultural paradigms that foreshadow the disruptions of today's world The Heraldic World of Lawrence Durrell Bruce Redwine, 2022-03-02 Lawrence Durrell's position as one of the twentieth century's leading novelists is continually being enlarged and revised This book presents unusual and unorthodox explorations of Alexandria the city at the heart of Durrell's writing his family relationships his biographer Michael Haag and his affinity with such diverse writers as Rilke and Virgil In particular it offers an insight into Durrell's emotions and sensibilities in elaborating his Sicilian Carousel and a penetrating and totally unique reading of Durrell's Alexandria Quartet in the light of the art and landscape of ancient Egypt

Literatures of War Eve Patten, Richard Pine, 2020-11-09 The most terrible disaster that one group of human beings can inflict on another is war Wars cause misery on an indescribable scale Yet we go on doing it to one another generation after generation Why Warfare is a recurrent and universal characteristic of human existence The mythologies of practically all peoples abound in wars and the superhuman deeds of warriors and pre literate communities apparently delighted in the recital of stories about battles Since our species became literate a mere 5 000 years ago written history has mostly been the history of wars Thousands who knew war evidently sickened of it and dreamt of lasting peace expressing their vision in literature and art in philosophy and religion They imagined Utopias freed of martial ambition and bloodshed which harked back to the Golden Age of classical antiquity to the Christian vision of a paradise lost and to the Arcadia of Greek and Latin poetry so richly celebrated in the canvases of Claude and Poussin All these things bear eloquent testimony to the human longing for peace but they have not triumphed over our dreadfully powerful propensity to war from the Introduction by Anthony Stevens In this multi disciplinary collection of essays on the manifestations of war in poetry fiction drama music and documentaries scholars and practitioners from an international context describe the transformation of the war experience into chronicles of hope and despair from Herodotus up to the present day
