Whose Language? Jacob L. Mey, 1985-01-01 For the colonized person objectivity is always directed against him Frantz Fanon Colonized persons do not live on what we call or used to call the colonies alone In general objective reality or the facts of life are very different depending on the kind of life you can afford This goes for language as well and it explains both the title of this book and gives it its raison d'être It deals with power in language and asks Who is really in command when we use our language And why does it make sense to talk about a language of power or lack of it The powerful are the colonizers the colonized are the powerless in language as in geopolitics

Colonizers and colonized alike however are subject to the social and economic conditions prevailing in society and therefore a thorough analysis of these conditions is a must for any socially oriented theory of language use     Source Book for Linguistics William Cowan, Jaromira Rakušan, 1987 Developed at Carleton University Ottawa this is a comprehensive workbook now in its second revised edition designed primarily for use with introductory courses in linguistics With 334 graded exercises and problems from more than 60 languages and dialects     The Prague Bulletin of Mathematical Linguistics ,1997     A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Jacek Fisiak, Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 1995     Paperbound Books in Print ,1992     International Books in Print ,1997     Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 1986     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1987     Uniform Trade List Annual ,1989     Brinkman's catalogus van boeken en tijdschriften ,1992 With 1901 1910 1956 1960 Repertorium is bound Brinkman's Titel catalogus van de gedurende 1901 1910 1956 1960 Title varies slightly     Bibliographic Guide to Education ,1987     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971     Books in Print Supplement ,1988     Boekblad ,1986
