Constructing Chicago:

Constructing Chicago Daniel M. Bluestone, 1991-01-01 Traces the architectural history of nineteenth century Chicago looks at Chicago's parks churches offices and civic buildings and looks at the image of Chicago they created Constructing Chicago Daniel Bluestone, Building Chicago Ann Durkin Keating, 1988 Chicago's rapid growth in the mid nineteenth century was countered by cholera outbreaks swampy roads and poor living conditions This title offers an account of the birth and growth of Chicago's suburbs the governments that developed to service them and the ideas that guided early urban development History of the Development of Building Construction in Chicago Frank Alfred Randall, John D. Randall, 1999 The second edition of History of the Development of Building Construction in Chicago is a tribute to Frank Randall's vision and resource to Chicago area architects engineers preservation specialists and other members of the building industry BOOK JACKET Creating Chicago's North Shore Michael H. Ebner, 1988 They are the suburban jewels that crown one of the world's premier cities Evanston Wilmette Kenilworth Winnetka Glencoe Highland Park Lake Forest Lake Bluff together they comprise the North Shore of Chicago a social registry of eight communities that serve as a genteel enclave of affluence culture and high society Historian Michael H. Ebner explains the origins and evolution of the North Shore as a distinctive region At the same time he tells the paradoxical story of how these suburbs with their common heritage mutual values and shared aspirations still preserve their distinctly separate identities Embedded in this history are important lessons about the uneasy development of the American metropolis The Chicago School of Architecture Carl W. Condit, 1964 This thoroughly illustrated classic study traces the history of the world famous Chicago school of architecture from its beginnings with the functional innovations of William Le Baron Jenney and others to their imaginative development by Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright The Chicago School of Architecture places the Chicago school in its historical setting showing it at once to be the culmination of an iron and concrete construction and the chief pioneer in the evolution of modern architecture It also assesses the achievements of the school in terms of the economic social and cultural growth of Chicago at the turn of the century and it shows the ultimate meaning of the Chicago work for contemporary architecture A major contribution by one of the world's master historians of building technique Reyner Banham Arts Magazine A rich organized record of the distinguished architecture with which Chicago lives and influences the world Ruth Moore Chicago Sun Times Industrial Chicago: The building interests, 1891 Henry Ives Cobb's Chicago Edward W. Wolner, 2011-06-15 When championing the commercial buildings and homes that made the Windy City famous one can't help but mention the brilliant names of their architects Daniel Burnham Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright among others But few people are aware of Henry Ives Cobb 1859-1931 the man responsible for an extraordinarily rich chapter in the city's turn of the century building boom and fewer still realize Cobb's lasting importance as a designer of the private and public institutions that continue to enrich Chicago's exceptional architectural heritage Henry Ives Cobb's Chicago is the first book about this distinguished architect and the magnificent buildings he created including the Newberry Library the Chicago Historical Society the Chicago Athletic Association the Fisheries Building for the 1893 World's Fair and the Chicago Federal Building Cobb filled a huge institutional void with his inventive Romanesque and Gothic buildings something that the other architect giants occupied largely with residential and commercial work did not do Edward W Wolner argues that these constructions and the enterprises they housed including the first buildings and master plan for the University of Chicago signaled that the city had come of age that its leaders were finally pursuing the highest ambitions in the realms of culture and intellect Assembling a cast of colorful characters from a free wheeling age gone by and including over 140 images of Cobb's most creative buildings Henry Ives Cobb's Chicago is a rare achievement a dynamic portrait of an architect whose institutional designs decisively changed the city's identity during its most critical phase of development

The Chicago School of Architecture Rolf Achilles, 2013-06-10 The birth of the skyscraper in Chicago in the mid 1880s introduced a new direction for city architecture upwards But how and why was it that Chicago set the standard for high rise buildings not only across the USA but all over the world Rolf Achilles here introduces the style of the First Chicago School from 1880 to 1910 explaining the innovative use of iron frames for strength height and openness and the ubiquity of gridded window arrangements With reference to such famous architects as William Le Baron Jenny and Frank Lloyd Wright and colorful pictures of among many others the Reliance Brooks and Marquette buildings this book is a fascinating exploration of the structures that helped to give Chicago its identity and the world a new way of building
