Constructing The Holocaust:

Constructing the Holocaust Dan Stone, 2003 On the one hand then this is traditional historiography the history of history writing On the other hand the problem is approached via recent work in the philosophy of history closely analysing historical works as texts This is an interdisciplinary study that brings to bear on historiography the kind of textual analysis usually reserved for fiction testimony or film The Holocaust precisely because it throws into doubt older methodologies demands the search for new ones Showing how Holocaust historians inadvertently and paradoxically reinscribe into the wider culture patterns of thought that the Holocaust repudiated Constructing the Holocaust tries to respond to the Holocaust in a way that recognises its potential impact on usually unquestioned beliefs and unspoken methodological assumptions BOOK JACKET

Histories of the Holocaust Dan Stone, 2010-06-17 A comprehensive and accessible guide to the major themes and debates in Holocaust historiography over the last two decades Cultural Memory and the Construction of Identity Dan

Ben-Amos, Liliane Weissberg, 1999 Cultural memory and the Construction of Identity brings together scholars of folklore literature history and communication to explore the dynamics of cultural memory in a variety of contexts Memory is a powerful tool that can transform a piece of earth into a homeland and common objects into symbols The authors of this volume show how memory is shaped and how it operates in uniting society and creating images that attain the value of truth even if they deviate from fact Report to the President and the Congress of the United States United States. Council on Historic Preservation, 1993 Remembering the Road to World War Two Patrick Finney, 2010-09-13 Remembering the Road to World War Two is a broad and comparative international survey of the historiography of the origins of the Second World War It explores how in the case of each of the major combatant countries historical writing on the origins of the Second World War has been inextricably linked with conceptions of national identity and collective memory

Constructing Identity, "souped-up" and "unplugged", 1998 The Holocaust's Ghost F. C. DeCoste, Bernard Schwartz, 2000-05 Numerous scholars explore the moral aesthetic and political outcomes of the Holocaust from the perspectives of various academic backgrounds including art literature political science education and history The Holocaust's Jewish Calendars Alan Rosen, 2019-02-28 The most comprehensive to date treatment of these precious artifacts of the Holocaust's Jewish efforts to maintain religious observations and identity Choice Calendars map time shaping and delineating our experience of it While the challenges to tracking Jewish conceptions of time during the Holocaust were substantial Alan Rosen reveals that many took great risks to mark time within that vast upheaval Rosen inventories and organizes Jewish calendars according to the wartime settings in which they were produced from Jewish communities to ghettos and concentration camps The calendars he considers reorient views of Jewish circumstances during the war and show how Jews were committed to fashioning traditional guides to daily life even in the most extreme conditions In a separate chapter moreover he elucidates how Holocaust era diaries sometimes served as surrogate Jewish calendars All in all

Rosen presents a revised idea of time continuity the sacred and the mundane the ordinary and the extraordinary even when death and destruction were the order of the day Rosen s focus on the Jewish calendar the ultimate symbol of continuity as weekday follows weekday and Sabbath follows Sabbath sheds new light on how Jews maintained connections to their way of conceiving time even within the cauldron of the Holocaust Rosen demonstrates the relationship between time and meaning between meaning and holiness between holy days and the divine presence all of which came under assault in the Nazis effort to kill Jewish souls before destroying Jewish bodies David Patterson author of Along the Edge of Annihilation The Collapse and Recovery of Life in the Holocaust Diary Constructing a Sense of Place Haim Yacobi,2004 While it is widely recognized that architects and their architecture play a key role in constructing a sense of place the inherent nexus between an architectural ideology and the production of national space and place has so far been neglected Focusing on the Zionist ideology this book brings together practising architects and academics to critically examine the role of architects architecture and spatial practices as mediators between national ideology and the politicization of space The book first of all sets out the wider context of theoretical debates concerning the role of architecture in the process of constructing a sense of place then divides into six main sections The book not only provides an innovative new perspective on how the Israeli state had developed but also sheds light on how architecture shapes national identity in any post colonial and settler state The Holocaust and Historical Methodology Dan Stone,2012-08-01 In the last two decades our empirical knowledge of the Holocaust has been vastly expanded Yet this empirical blossoming has not been accompanied by much theoretical reflection on the historiography This volume argues that reflection on the historical process of re constructing the past is as important for understanding the Holocaust and by extension any past event as is archival research It aims to go beyond the dominant paradigm of political history and describe the emergence of methods now being used to reconstruct the past in the context of Holocaust historiography The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World Joel Krieger,Margaret E. Crahan,2001-08-02 The world has seen dramatic changes since the publication of the first edition of The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World in 1993 In the post Cold War world globalization now offers wealth and opportunities on a broader scale as well as greater international harmony but threatens to reinforce the advantage gap between wealthy and poor regions and intensify environmental degradation Conflict and squalor expressed in brutal brushfire wars epidemics and chronic underdevelopment vie with equally dramatic accounts of growth and democracy associated with a liberal political order and the global diffusion of trade investment and communications Drawing on the breadth of the first edition this updated edition reflects the changing world with a reassessment of many of the core themes of the Companion and new articles on the people concepts and events that have shaped the world since 1993 The second edition includes biographies of Kofi Annan Tony Blair Bill Clinton and Gerhard Schroder articles on events such as the Rwandan Genocide and the war in Kosovo and coverage of international trade developments such as NAFTA and the World Trade Organization Eighty seven of the 672 articles in the
