Constructing Rhetorical Education:

Constructing Rhetorical Education Davida Charney, Wilma R. Ebbitt, 1992 In nineteen essays illustrating its many aspects this book offers an argument for what it takes to construct a complete rhetorical education The editors take an approach that is pragmatic and pluralistic based as it is on the assumptions that a rhetorical education is not limited to teaching freshman composition or any specific writing course and that the contexts in which such an education occurs are not limited to classrooms This thought provoking volume stresses that while a rhetorical education results in the growth of writing skills its larger goal is to foster critical thinking

Struggle for the City Derek G. Handley, 2024-08-14 The urban renewal policies stemming from the 1954 Housing Act and 1956 Highway Act destroyed the economic centers of many Black neighborhoods in the United States Struggle for the City recovers the agency and solidarity of African American residents confronting this diagnosis of blight in northern cities in the 1950s and 1960s Examining Black newspapers archival documents from Black organizations and oral histories of community advocates Derek G Handley shows how African American residents in three communities the Hill district of Pittsburgh the Bronzeville neighborhood of Milwaukee and the Rondo district of St Paul enacted a new form of citizenship to fight for their neighborhoods Dubbing this the Black Rhetorical Citizenship a nod to the integral role of language and other symbolic means in the Black Freedom Movement Handley situates citizenship as both a site of resistance and a mode of public engagement that cannot be divorced from race and the effects of racism Through this framework Struggle for the City demonstrates how local organizers leaders and residents used rhetorics of placemaking community organizing and critical memory to resist the bulldozing visions of urban renewal By showing how African American residents built political community at the local level and by centering the residents in their own narratives of displacement Handley recovers strategies of resistance that continue to influence the actions of the Black Freedom Movement including Black Lives Matter

Making the Grade Suzanne Webb, 2008 This study incorporates life history interviews along with empirical research to allow the voices of five McNair scholars to be heard Rich details of attaining a rhetorical education through around and despite issues of being classed and gendered individuals ring loud and clear through the two collage essays included in this research included to bring those voices to the surface Then these collage essays are embedded in more traditional research methods a literature review and a detailed methodology By combining these three forms of research this study shows that allowing the personal to surface gives the field of Rhet Comp a much richer more detailed picture of what a rhetorical education is with respect to class and gender

Catalogue of Miami University at Oxford, Ohio Miami University (Oxford, Ohio), 1915 The Essentials of Composition and Rhetoric Abraham Howry Espenshade, 1904 Theorizing Composition Mary Kennedy, 1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory's critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works
