Construction Of Religious Boundaries:

The Construction of Religious Boundaries Harjot Oberoi, 1997 Invasion of Religious Boundaries Jasbir Singh Mann, Surinder Singh Sodhi, Gurbaksh Singh Gill, Canadian Sikh Study & Teaching Society, 1995 Contributed articles Who Owns Religion? Laurie L. Patton, 2019-11-27 Who Owns Religion focuses on a period the late 1980s through the 1990s when scholars of religion were accused of scandalizing or denigrating the very communities they had imagined themselves honoring through their work While controversies involving scholarly claims about religion are nothing new this period saw an increase in vitriol that remains with us today Authors of seemingly arcane studies on subjects like the origins of the idea of Mother Earth or the sexual dynamics of mysticism have been targets of hate mail and book banning campaigns As a result scholars of religion have struggled to describe their own work to their various publics and even to themselves Taking the reader through several compelling case studies Patton identifies two trends of the 80s and 90s that fueled that rise the growth of multicultural identity politics which enabled a form of volatile public debate she terms eruptive public space and the advent of the internet which offered new ways for religious groups to read scholarship and respond publicly These controversies she shows were also fundamentally about something new the very rights of secular Western scholarship to interpret religions at all Patton's book holds out hope that scholars can find a space for their work between the university and the communities they study Scholars of religion she argues have multiple masters and must move between them while writing histories and speaking about realities that not everyone may be interested in hearing Saivism in the Diaspora Ron Geaves, 2007 The book will explore contemporary manifestations of the worship of Siva that have transmigrated to the West It explores Hindu vernacular traditions or village Hinduism especially in the context of the Hindu diaspora where the general assumption is that such forms of Hinduism cannot survive as they lack the infrastructure and the rural environment Based on extensive fieldwork in Britain and India the author shows that significant developments are taking place where Hindu communities have achieved sufficient concentration for various movements to appear that reproduce folk traditions connected to a particular locale in the subcontinent These movements often display a focus on the pragmatic or apotropaic motivation for worship of deities associated with healing The focus is on the Baba Balaknath communities originating in the Punjab and Himachal Pradesh the worship of Murugan amongst Tamil populations and the Community of the Many Names of God in Wales which originated in the worship of Subramaniyam in Sri Lanka The book will not only throw some clarity on changing beliefs and practices in the Hindu diaspora particularly the role of the apotropaic or pragmatic dimension it will also help to understand important theoretical concepts such as Sanskritisation and the relationship between the Little Tradition and the Great Tradition or All India and local traditions Construction of Maya Space Thomas H. Guderjan, Jennifer P. Mathews, 2023-11-07 This volume focuses on how powerful people of the ancient historical and contemporary periods in the Maya world used features such as walls roads rails and symbolic boundaries to control those without power and how the powerless pushed back

Pal Kolsto, 2018-02-19 The dissolution of the Soviet Union has provided scholars with tremendously rich material for the study of comparative nation building Not since the decolonization of Africa in the 1960s have so many new states been established in one stroke in one region The post Soviet states moreover have all the necessary prerequisites for fruitful comparison a number of similarities but also significant differences in terms of size culture and recent history In order to survive in the long run modern states normally must have a population that possesses some sense of unity Its citizens must adhere to some common values and common allegiance towards the same state institutions and symbols This does not mean that all inhabitants must necessarily share the same culture but they should at least regard themselves as members of the same nation Strategies to foster this kind of common nationhood in a population are usually referred to as nation building After a decade of post Soviet nation building certain patterns are emerging and not always the most obvious ones Some states seem to manage well against high odds while others appear to be disintegrating or sinking slowly into oblivion To a remarkable degree the former Soviet republics have chosen different models for their nation building This book examines the preconditions for these endeavors the goals the state leaders are aiming at and the means they employ to reach them The Construction of Pakistani Christian Identity John O'Brien, 2006 The Construction of Muslim Identities and Social Change in Zinder, Republic of Niger Robert S. Glew, 1997 Sikh Forms and Symbols Mohinder Singh, 2000 The Issue Of Preserving Sikh Symbols Has Been Engaging Attention For Over Seven Decades Particularly In Foreign Countries Like Uk Usa Canada Etc Due To Alien And Hostile Atmosphere In These Host Countries Preservation Of Hair Wearing Of Turban And Kirpan Have Been The Subject Of Special Controversy This Volume Contains Authoritative Essays In Support Of Sikh Symbols By Such Distinguished Scholars As Bhaji Singh Prof Teja Singh Bawa Harkrishan Singh Dr Ganda Singh Prof Gurmukh Nihal Singh Dr J S Neki Dr Trilochan Singh Prof Hew McLeod Prof Vinay Lal And Others The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English language Construction of an Identity Discourse Subhakanta Behera, 2002 This Book Focuses Primarily On The Oriya Identity As Defined And Constructed In The Two Important Oriya Identity I E Oriya Literature And The Jagannath Cult Sikh Ethnonationalism and the Political Economy of Punjab Shinder Purewal, 2000 Closely examining how the Sikh separatist movement for Khalistan developed in the Punjab and why it turned violent this book explores how internal power blocs within Sikhism shaped an exclusionary Sikh identity over the past 300 years As well the political economy perspective of the book helps explain how the interests of the Sikh capitalist farmers have shaped post independence Sikh politics International Journal of Punjab Studies, 2000 The Transmission of Sikh Heritage in the Diaspora Pashaura Singh, Norman Gerald Barrier, 1996 Contributed seminar papers The Realm of Faith Mahesh Sharma, 2001 This Book Will Be Of Particular Interest To Historians Studying Colonial India The Sociologists Social Anthropologists Those Interested In The Study Of Himalaya And People Seeking To Understand Various Issues Related Religion And Its Interface With Society The Middle East & South Asia Folklore Bulletin, 1996 Sikhism Darshan Singh, 1996 Diversity and Pluralism in Islam Zulfikar Hirji, 2010-07-30 This volume is the result of a series of seminars on Muslim pluralism hosted at The Institute of Ismaili Studies between 2002 and 2003 Religion, Identity, and Nationhood Paramjit S. Judge, 2005 The Sikh militant movement spanned one and a half decades during which a considerable loss of life occurred in and outside Punjab In terms of its spread it almost became international in character largely due to the presence of diaspora Sikhs in most of the western world This work is based on the analysis of the speeches and messages of the leaders of the militant movement It has been argued without essentializing the problematic that the nature of discourse of the militant movement could be traced back to the construction of Sikhism in the second half of the nineteenth century The ideology of the Singh Sabha movement and its attempt at the construction of singular religious identity provided the dynamics to the Sikh community In the process the religious tradition was invented which emphasized the singular Sikh identity by paving the way for the fundamentalist discourse of separatism The composite religious tradition in Sikhism was put at the margin of the community as a result of which it became possible to construct Sikh nationhood Coupled with this construction was the attempt of the militants to purge the community from all syncretism practised by the Sikhs It has been argued that despite this construction the Sikh community has continued to observe the composite tradition though the threat of militant violence greatly reduced the eclectic space of inter subjective communitarian understanding and interaction
