Consuming Passions Feminist Approaches To Weight Preoccupation And Eating Disorders:

Consuming Passions Catrina Brown, Karin Jasper, 1993 Twenty two experts share their extensive knowledge on women's preoccupation with body size They consider eating behaviours ranging from dieting and exercise to anorexia and bulimia and explore the disputed links made between weight and health Consuming Passions, 1993 The Wiley Handbook of Eating Disorders Linda Smolak, Michael P. Levine, 2015-07-23 This groundbreaking two volume handbook provides a comprehensive collection of evidence based analyses of the causes treatment and prevention of eating disorders A two volume handbook featuring contributions from an international group of experts and edited by two of the leading authorities on eating disorders and body image research Presents comprehensive coverage of eating disorders including their history etiological factors diagnosis assessment prevention and treatment Tackles controversies and previously unanswered questions in the field Includes coverage of DSM 5 and suggestions for further research at the end of each chapter 2 Volumes Narrative Therapy Catrina Brown, Tod Augusta-Scott, 2006-08-03 This volume is especially useful in demonstrating the effects of placing social discourses at the center of therapy It goes against many sacred cows of the larger modernist therapeutic community but in doing so it offers new ideas for mental health professionals attempting to help their clients with common and serious life problems PSYCRITIQUES This compilation is an insightful read for practitioners who have not taken the opportunity to use narrative therapy in practice Experienced practitioners will certainly appreciate the theoretical analysis offered by the writers as well as the opportunity for reflective practice Narrative Therapy is a meaningful contribution to a Canadian book market lacking in clinical literature for social workers CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives offers a comprehensive introduction to and critique of narrative therapy and its theories This edited volume introduces students to the history and theory of narrative therapy Authors Catrina Brown and Tod Augusta Scott situate this approach to theory and practice within the context of various feminist post modern and critical theories Through the presentation of case studies Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives shows how this narrative oriented theory can be applied in the client therapist experience Many important therapeutic situations abuse addictions eating disorders and more are addressed from the narrative perspective Rooted in social constructionism and emerging initially from family therapy narrative therapy emphasizes the idea that we live storied lives Within this approach the editors and contributors seek to show how we make sense of our lives and experiences by ascribing meaning through stories which themselves arise within social conversations and culturally available discourses Our stories don't simply represent us or mirror lived events they actually constitute us shaping our lives as well as our relationships Narrative Therapy will be a valuable supplemental textbook for theory and practice courses in departments of Counseling and Psychotherapy and of Social Work as well as for courses in Gender and Women Studies Women Voicing Resistance Suzanne McKenzie-Mohr, Michelle N. LaFrance, 2014-03-26 Feminist scholars have demonstrated how dominant discourses and master narratives frequently reflect patriarchal influence thereby distorting and depoliticizing women's storying of their own lives. In this groundbreaking volume a number of internationally recognized researchers working across a range of disciplines provide a detailed examination of women's attempts to counter story their lives when prevailing discourses are unhelpful or indeed harmful. As such it is an exploration of women's agency and resistance which highlights the challenges and complexities of such discursive work. The chapters explore women's resistance across a wide range of experiences including intimate partner violence, casual sex, depression, premenstrual change, disordered eating, lesbian identity, women's work in male dominated spaces, rape and child birth. Each chapter combines theoretical analyses with illuminating first hand accounts and elaborates practical implications that provide directions for individual and social change. Providing an incisive and comprehensive exploration of discourse, oppression and resistance that cuts across domains of women's everyday lives, Women Voicing Resistance will be of great interest to students, scholars and practitioners in the fields of psychology, gender studies, women's studies, sociology and social work. Canadian Journal of Counselling, 2005

The Female Body in America Emily Caroline Martin-Hondros, 2009

The Cult of Thinness Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2007. In this powerful book Sharlene Nagy Hesse Biber goes beyond traditional psychological explanations of eating disorders to level a powerful indictment against the social, political and economic pressures women face in a weight obsessed society. Ethnicity, gay and lesbian body image and the globalization of body image issues align a refined cultural study of body image with the trends found in current research, studies, demographic data and popular culture. Iowa Journal of Communication, 2001

Empirically Supported Cognitive Therapies William J. Lyddon, PhD, 2001-08-06. US and British researchers and clinicians in psychology and related fields summarize current empirical developments in cognitive therapy to treat mood disorders, phobias, panic, obsessive compulsive disorder and post traumatic stress disorder. c.
