The Contemplation of the World Michel Maffesoli, 1996 In The Contemplation of the World eminent French theorist Michel Maffesoli pursues and extends his project of decoding contemporary societies Here Maffesoli questions afresh the mundane stuff of contemporary sociality seeking to discern its primary mode of expression its forms style rules and principles its aesthetics The advent of postmodernity marks the beginning of the society of the image It is as if the fragmentation of the social has gradually and necessarily corresponded to massive crumbling of our representations of the real and resulted in their infinite refraction Henceforward we are living in the heart of an ever increasing entanglement of objects signs and images Located somewhere between dream and reality we are the unfettered prisoners of a symbolic universe of growing opacity and mysterious meanings In The Contemplation of the World Maffesoli seeks to explore those unobtrusive links that regulate and organize the ensemble of our representations the raw material refashioned in our imaginary and our fantasies exploring what it is that is recognizably postmodern about them Maffesoli proposes a map of the vast domain of the collective imaginary allowing us to better understand where today's culture stands and helping us to perceive within its clamorous confines the outlines still frail of a community ideal Conscious Acts and the Politics of Social Change Robin L. Faking the News Ryan Skinnell, 2018-05-29 Donald J Trump's speaking and writing invite passionate reactions maybe he's a bluecollar billionaire hero who speaks the language of the common man or maybe he's a gleefully illiterate tremendously unqualified idiot Whatever the case he was persuasive enough to get himself elected President of the United States and he's been persuasive enough to keep a majority of his supporters behind him In Faking the News What Rhetoric Can Teach Us About Donald J Trump eleven prominent rhetoric experts explain how Trump's persuasive language works Specifically the authors explain Trump's persuasive uses of demagoguery anti-Semitism alternative facts populism charismatic leadership social media television political slogans visual identity image comedy and humor and shame and humiliation Faking the News is written for readers who may not know anything about rhetoric so each chapter explains a feature of rhetoric and uses that lens to illuminate Trump's rhetorical accomplishments Specifically about how he has used and still uses language symbols and even style to appeal to the people in his various audiences Online Collaborative Translation in China and Beyond Chuan Yu, 2022-11-30 In this original and innovative work Yu boldly tackles the increasingly influential collaborative translation phenomenon with special reference to China She employs the unique perspective of an ethnographer to explore how citizen translators work together as they select translate edit and polish translations Her area of particular interest is the burgeoning yet notably distinctive world of the Chinese internet where the digital media ecology is with Chinese characteristics Through her longitudinal digital ethnographic fieldwork in Yeeyan Cenci and other online translation platforms where the source materials usually come from outside China Yu draws out lessons for the various actors in the collaborative translation space focusing on their communities working practices and identities for nothing is quite as it seems She also theorises relationships between the actors their work and their places of work offering us a rich and insightful perspective into the often hidden world of collaborative translation in China The contribution of Yu's work also lies in her effort in looking beyond China providing us with a landscape of collaborative translation in practice in training and in theory across geographic contexts This volume will be of particular interest to scholars and postgraduate students in translation studies and digital media International Review for the Sociology of Sport, 2008-06 Urbanization and African Cultures Toyin Falola, Steven J.
