Contemporary Ceramics:

Contemporary Ceramics Susan Peterson, 2000 This unprecedented survey of the most outstanding ceramics being created today offers a sweeping close up look at the work of more than 260 artists from more than thirty countries A special feature of this collection is the range of work from China almost unknown outside of this country until now Organized by the distinctive categories of functional ceramics figurative pieces and installation works the book gives a complete picture of the latest developments in each area of contemporary ceramic art Chapters on materials firing techniques ethnic influences in design and related topics delve into every aspect of ceramics creation that would be of interest to crafters collectors and other readers who are drawn to contemporary art Stimulating essays by the author tie together the wide range of work shown in superbly detailed color photographs Artists included John Mason Jun Kaneko Peter Voulkos Ralph Bacerra Rudy Autio Ken Price Peter Lane The book is lavishly illustrated and delights the eyes with the exuberance and variety of ceramic art in the 20th century Mills Quarterly Spring 2001 Great Pots Ulysses Grant Dietz, Newark Museum, 2003 Published in conjunction with the exhibition Great pots contemporary ceramics from function to fantasy at The Newark Museum February 14 June 1 2003 T p verso Contemporary Ceramics Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Jane Adlin, 1998

Ceramics Kate Singleton, 2016-09-27 This ebook presents the work of 30 contemporary artists who have turned to clay to shape their most innovative ideas into stunning works of art From cups shaped like crystals to a tree trunk made of porcelain and stoneware planters painted to look like ladies popular curator and blogger Kate Singleton collects here whimsical pieces with narrative graphic curious and organic qualities that blur the line between fine art design and craft Contemporary Ceramics Emmanuel Cooper, 2009-09-22 A comprehensive worldwide survey with over 600 stunning illustrations of the most distinctive intensely creative and innovative recent work ranging from functional objects to the boundaries and possibilities of clay as a medium

Contemporary Clay and Museum Culture Christie Brown, Julian Stair, Clare Twomey, 2016-06-17 This groundbreaking book is the first to provide a critical overview of the relationship between contemporary ceramics and curatorial practice in museum culture Ceramic objects form a major part of museum collections with connections to anthropology archaeology and other disciplines that engage with the cultural and social history of humankind In recent years museums have provided the impetus for cutting edge artistic practice either as a response to particular collections or as part of exhibitions But the question of how museums have staged contemporary ceramics and how ceramic artists respond to museum collections has not been the subject of published research to date This book examines how ceramic artists have over the last decade begun to animate museum collections in new ways and reflects on the impact that these new initiatives have had in the broad context of visual culture Ceramics in the Expanded Field is the culmination of a three year AHRC funded project and reflects its major findings It brings together leading international voices in the field of ceramics research undertaken throughout the project and papers delivered at the concluding conference By examining the benefits and constraints of interventions and the dialogue between ceramics and museological practice this book will bring focus to an area of museology that has not yet been theorized and will contribute to policy debates and art practice

Listening to Clay Alice North, Halsey North, Louise Allison Cort, 2022-06-14 The first book to tell the stories of some of the most revered living Japanese ceramists of the century tracing the evolution of modern and contemporary craft and art in Japan and the artists considerable influence which far transcends national borders Listening to Clay Conversations with Contemporary Japanese Ceramic Artists is the first book to present conversations with some of the most important living Japanese ceramic artists Tracing the evolution of modern and contemporary craft and art in Japan this groundbreaking volume highlights sixteen individuals whose unparalleled skill and creative brilliance have lent them an influence that far transcends national borders Despite forging illustrious careers and earning international recognition for their work these sixteen artists have been little known in terms of their personal stories Ranging in age from sixty three to ninety three they embody the diverse experiences of several generations who have been active and successful from the late 1940s to the present day a period of massive change Now sharing their stories for the first time in Listening to Clay they not only describe their distinctive processes inspirations and relationships with clay but together trace a seismic cultural shift through a field in which centuries old but exclusionary potting traditions opened to new practitioners and kinds of practices Listening to Clay includes conversations with artists born into pottery making families as well as with some of the first women admitted to the ceramics department of Tokyo University of the Arts telling a larger story about ingenuity and trailblazing that has shaped contemporary art in Japan and around the world Each artist is represented by an entry including a brief introduction a portrait selected examples of their work and an intimate interview conducted by the authors over several in person visits from 2004 to 2019 At the core of each story is the artist s personal relationship to clay often described as a collaboration with the material rather than an imposing of intention The oldest artist interviewed Hayashi Yasuo enlisted in the army during WWII at age fifteen and trained as a kamikaze pilot He was born into a family that had fired ceramics in cooperative kilns for generations but he rejected traditional modes and went on to be the first artist in Japan to make truly abstract ceramic sculpture In the late 1960s another artist Mishima Kimiyo developed a technique of silkscreening on clay and began making ceramic newspapers to comment on the proliferation of the media She became fascinated with trash recreating it out of clay and worked in relative obscurity for decades until she had a major exhibition in Tokyo in 2015 Featuring a preface by curator writer and historian Glenn Adamson and a foreword by Monika Bincsik the Associate Curator for Japanese Decorative Arts at The Metropolitan Museum of Art Listening to Clay has been a project more than fifteen years in the making for authors Alice and Halsey North respected and knowledgeable collectors and patrons of contemporary Japanese ceramics and Louise Allison Cort Curator Emerita of Ceramics National Museum of Asian Art Smithsonian Institution The book also includes conversations with five important dealers of contemporary Japanese ceramics who have played and are playing a critical role in introducing the work of these artists to the world several detailed appendices and a glossary of terms relevant people and relationships Listening to Clay is a long overdue and insightful book that for the first time spotlights some of Japan's most celebrated contemporary ceramic artists through personal idiosyncratic accounts of their day to day lives giving special access to their creative process and artistic development

Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay
