Influential Interiors Suzanne Trocmé,1999 The first book that reveals the history of 20th century interior design by showcasing the styles and offering the trade secrets of the key decorators and designers who have shaped and continue to shape today's taste. The art of interior design as we know it emerged at the beginning of the 20th century and Influential Interiors chronicles the most significant people, styles and moments in its history. From early stars such as Elsie de Wolfe, Syrie Maugham and Jean Michel Frank to today's leading practitioners such as Andree Putman, Peter Marino and Sills, their work in each case outlined over several spreads has had a lasting influence on those that followed them. And for six major figures, a full color scrapbook-like collage breaks down the key elements of the designer's signature style, offering at a glance the types of colors, fabrics, patterns, furniture and accessories that characterize them.

Artbibliographies Modern, 1999 AA Files, 1995 Modernism Richard Weston, 2001-04-24 A comprehensive survey tracing the course of the Modernist movement The Library Journal, 1998 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept-May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately A Model for Identifying and Evaluating the Historic Significance of Post-World War II Housing, 2012 The report which contains numerous illustrations and photographic examples of postwar housing will also serve as an important reference document for cultural preservation professionals. Vast numbers of postwar houses located in every American city, town, suburb and rural area are either currently more than 50 years old or will soon become 50 years old and are thus potentially eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. National Register. Because of the passage of time, the number of potentially eligible houses will increase dramatically in the next decade, presenting a major challenge to DOT decision makers and preservation planners.
