Contemporary Change In Traditional Volume 2:

Folk Art Potters of Japan Brian Moeran, 2013-12-19 This is a study of a group of potters living in a small community in the south of Japan and about the problems they face in the production marketing and aesthetic appraisal of a kind of stoneware pottery generally referred to as mingei or folk art It shows how different people in an art world bring to bear different sets of values as they negotiate the meaning of mingei and try to decide whether a pot is art folk art or mere craft At the same time this book is an unusual monograph in that it reaches beyond the mere study of an isolated community to trace the origins and history of folk art in general By showing how a set of aesthetic ideals originating in Britain was taken to Japan and thence back to Europe and the United States as a result of the activities of people like William Morris Yanagi So etsu Bernard Leach and Hamada Shoji this book rewrites the history of contemporary western ceramics

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study
