Research on Teacher Stress Christopher J. McCarthy, Richard G. Lambert, 2023-03-01 This volume informs our understanding of how educational settings can respond to the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic and beyond Teaching has always been a challenging profession but the pandemic has added unprecedented levels of demands Much of what we know about stress and trauma in education predates the COVID 19 pandemic As the pandemic recedes it seems likely that recruiting and retaining teachers always a challenge will become even more difficult This could not be worse for students who face steep losses in their academic and socio emotional progress after more than two years of pandemic impacted schooling The silver lining is that scholars who study the occupational health have spent the past several years studying the effect of the pandemic on teachers which led us to edit this volume to collect what is known and have these experts explain how we can better support teachers in the future This book documents the many impacts of the pandemic on the teaching profession but also leverages research to chart a path forward Part I examines the contours of stress with a particular emphasis on COVID 19 impacts These contributions range from parents achievement worries to compassion fatigue and more optimistically how teachers cope Part II examines pandemic impacts on pre school teachers in both the U S and in Australia Given the social distancing in place during the pandemic pre school students and their teachers were under unique demands as there is no substitute for the personal connection critical at that age It is likely that students entering elementary school in the next few years will have work to do in their social skills Part III focuses on mentoring and stress during the pandemic Mentoring is an important part of teacher s professional development but the pandemic scrambled traditional forms of mentoring as all teachers were thrown into unfamiliar online technology The final section of this book Part IV includes links between teacher stress and trauma during the pandemic Clearly with the ongoing nature of the pandemic it is easy to see how trauma is likely to manifest in years to come Readers of this book will better understand teacher demands as well as the resources teachers will need going forward Teachers made heroic efforts during the pandemic to help their students both academically and personally We owe to them to learn from research during the pandemic that points to the way to a healthier occupational future Harnessing AI's Potential to Support Student Success and Teaching Excellence Araujo, Juan J.,Snider, Sharla,2025-07-15 With the integration of AI in educational environments AI has shaped the way schools operate and support students Personalized learning platforms and tutoring systems have transformed the traditional schooling system for the better However the deployment of AI in school settings also raises critical questions around equity privacy ethical use and the role of educators in a technology enhanced landscape Examining the impact of AI usage in schools is essential to understand both its potential to enhance educational outcomes and the challenges that must be addressed to ensure it serves all learners effectively and responsibly Harnessing AI s Potential to Support Student Success and Teaching Excellence explores the landscape of AI in education and how it has helped and hindered school settings This book highlights both the transformative potential of AI and the risks associated with its unchecked advancement emphasizing the importance of responsible innovation in education Covering topics such as education AI and technology this book is an excellent resource for teachers administrators and policymakers searching for the right approach for such AI implementation Mentoring to Support Teacher Candidate Development Clayton Smith,Geri Salinitri,Xuan Tai Nguyen,2025-11-13 This book explores the variety of ways in which mentoring can be used to support teacher candidate development It provides an overview of how mentoring can be used in teaching practice and specifically how it can be employed to support the development of a range of student types including in risk students additional language students and international learners It focuses on the soft or generic skills that enhance employability and the ability to work comfortably with others such as communication skills critical thinking problem solving life long learning ethics and leadership This book is designed to be used in pre service teacher education programs in service teaching and beginning teacher induction AI-Empowered Knowledge Management in Education Sayan Chakraborty,Bitan Misra,Nilanjan Dey,2024-08-08 This book explains basic ideas behind several methods used in artificial intelligence based knowledge management techniques It also shows how these techniques are applied in practical contexts in different education sectors The book discusses AI based knowledge management applications AI empowered knowledge management in primary and higher education and technical and ethical challenges and opportunities The Artificial Intelligence Compendium ,1988 Scientific and Technical Books and Serials in Print ,1984 Student Voices in Formative Assessment Feedback Pernille Fiskerstrand,Wenke Mork Rogne,Paul Kessler Rogers ,Fabienne Van Der Kleij,2025-10-23 This Research Topic seeks to bring forward new empirical research on students experiences and emotions toward formative assessment feedback Research on formative assessment has expanded considerably over the last decades Lee et al 2020 Morris et al 2021 Shute 2008 and research has identified positive learning effects from the student s perspective Weurlander et al 2012 However in their extensive review Van der Kleij and Lipnevich 2021 found that the field of students perceptions of assessment feedback lacks clear definitions in addition to deeper relations to theory Methodological shortcomings in self reporting feedback studies are also found in Brown and Zhao 2023 Consequently the relatively large body of research on the topic is isolated and diverse As such the existing research offers minimal understanding of the connection between students perceptions of feedback their engagement with it and the outcome of the assessment feedback Van der Kleij Winstone Elementary students view of formative assessment processes and outcomes Assessment environment for different groups levels of students Longitudinal perspectives on emotions towards formative assessment Theoretical approaches to students perceptions of assessment feedback Students view of the feedback process as generators of feedback Students experiences of use of AI in assessment
