INTRODUCTION There comes a time when the elastic snaps When you push yourself to breaking point and everything

crashes down My breaking point came on a gloomy Monday morning commute in 2015 Sitting in my car waiting for the lights to change I looked at two guys in their cars on either side of me They looked as miserable as I felt At that moment I burst into tears What the fuck was I doing with my life I was unhappy in my personal life and hated my job I couldn't see a way out I was too invested in my career too old to start again Looking back I didn't know jack shit about building a fitness business Corporate marketing is one thing Doing everything from scratch alone in a different industry is another I didn't have a creative agency or a multimillion pound budget All I had was a Personal Trainer certificate and the ironparadisefitness.com domain name Nevertheless I started building my online empire Or as I now refer to it pissing in the wind for two years I would write lousy articles post selfies and wonder why clients weren't beating down my virtual door Desperate to carve a way out of corporate life I vowed not to quit My business was my obsession Going out meeting friends and taking a break were a rarity I thought it was the only way to be successful I became a hermit A recluse Like the creepy guy kids fear in horror movies That's Old Man Mitchell from No 29 He never leaves the house Some say he only goes outside to dispose of the dead bodies I wasn't that bad but my social life went on ice I studied nutrition and learned the intricacies of exercise mechanics I read books and invested in courses on social media copywriting and web design Iron Paradise Fitness had consumed my entire life and I loved it It was the fire in my belly I'd been missing The passion I needed Although it did make for awkward conversations on Tinder dates What do you like to do in your spare time The innocent question would come Well I'm building my own business right now so that's my main focus Ah cool But what do you like to do for fun Work on my business Yeah but what about when you're not doing that I'm either working on my business thinking about working on my business or eating Oh

Rigorous Magic Steve Hatch, Jim Taylor, 2009-08-19 In the marketing world communication ideas are revered for their magical ability to affect how consumers behave towards brands Despite this they are poorly understood How many types are there What are their characteristics How should you use them And what makes a good one Most marketers simply cannot answer these questions Rigorous Magic answers these questions bringing science to the art of ideas Jim Taylor and Steve Hatch dispel the myths around communication ideas and create a practical road map for marketers to select which types are best for their brand to compete Only through a rigorous process of cataloguing and evaluation can ideas truly be understood and the right ones selected to change consumer behaviour in today's global multi channel marketing world

Research on ESL in U.S. Community Colleges Kathleen M. Bailey, Maricel Guiao Santos, 2009 As enrollment figures for ESL and former ESL students in higher education continue to grow it's necessary for educators who work with these students to reflect on current practices develop new understandings and take action when change is warranted This collection explores some of the most important challenges for English for Academic Purposes EAP educators in a crucial area of U.S. higher education community colleges Community college mission statements generally feature a strong commitment to meeting local needs The studies presented in this book serve to illustrate community connections and the social implications of them Readers will gain insight into relevant practice while learning from studies that can serve as a basis for additional research The chapters are organized according to five themes curricula technology retention and persistence identity and defining and assessing success areas that all ESL programs in community colleges are struggling to reform Each part features a sampling of research combined with varied perspectives on each topic Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel, Robert B. Cooter, 2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K 3 and 4 8 classrooms chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4 6 and 6 8 Adolescents and Digital Literacies Sara B.
