Common Sense Suicide The Final Right:

Common-sense Suicide Doris Portwood, 1978      Contemporary Perspectives on Rational Suicide James L. Werth, 2013-06-17 This text brings together spokespersons from several different disciplines who can present their arguments for or against rational suicide as a viable concept and consequently a realistic option The pros and cons of the discussion format bring the readers to search for their beliefs and the final decision of acceptance or rejection of the concept is left to each individual reader      Sex, Drugs, Death, and the Law David A. J. Richards, 1986 Among the most commonly argued legal questions are those involving victimless crimes consensual adult sexual relations including homosexuality and prostitution the use of drugs and the right to die How can they be distinguished from proper crimes and how can we as citizens judge the complex moral and legal issues that such questions entail David Richards a teacher of law in the areas of constitutional and criminal law and a moral and legal philosopher concerned with the investigation of legal concepts applies an interdisciplinary approach to the question of overcriminalization he draws on legal and philosophical arguments and links the subject to history psychology social science and literature To demonstrate how gross and unjust overcriminalization has developed Professor Richards explores basic assumptions that often underlie the common American sense of proper criminalization      Physicians' Attitudes Toward Elder Suicide Lori M. Secouler, 1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare's most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory      Stephen Lives Anne Puryear, 1997-04 The author discusses the life of her son Stephen who committed suicide at the age of fifteen and relates messages she has received from him since his death telling her why he took his own life and offering hope to other people who may be discouraged with their own lives      House Calls Patch Adams, 1998 A reminder that some of the most important factors in healing are not high tech marvels but ordinary factors such as love compassion friendship and hope      Final Choices George M. Burnell, 1993-03-21 He sensitively discusses many important concerns so as to facilitate such dialogue for example the questions to ask a doctor at the onset of illness the fear of pain or physical deterioration e g from AIDS or chemotherapy the spiritual legal and financial counsel available to patient and family the medical choices a patient may have in pursuit of a dignified death the official documents to prepare e g a living will a power of attorney a healthcare proxy for the patient's last wishes the possible merits of hospice care for the medical and spiritual benefits of patient and family Featuring poignant case histories Dr Burnell describes in clear nontechnical language the painful ethical and legal complications that surface when patients and families do not pursue the possibility of do not resuscitate DNR orders in lieu of life prolonging measures Unlike other books in the field Final Choices does not underplay the dilemmas posed by modern medical technology      Ultimate Penalties Leon Shaskolsky Sheleff, 1987      Library Journal, 1992 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued
