Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 1927 The Yearbook of the Universities of the Commonwealth, 1924 Out Here Down Under E. A.

Judge, 2023-04-24 Out Here Down Under is a collection of documents and papers illuminating the development and character of ancient history as a discipline in the Antipodes It considers especially the distinctive and extraordinarily popular program championed by E A Judge of studying classical and biblical corpora together under one discipline with an emphasis on the interpretation of documentary sources In twenty chapters this volume considers such issues as the relationship between British and Antipodean scholarship the story and legacy of Antipodean scholars of the ancient world the nature and ideology of ancient history programs at schools and universities especially in NSW and at Macquarie the interaction between biblical and classical disciplines and the function of history in contemporary Australia These texts mostly written by Judge himself throughout his career appear here with new introductory notes outlining their historical significance for the discipline and Judge's own practice

Spaces and Places in Central and Eastern Europe Gyula Horváth, 2014-08-21 Across Europe there is a rapidly changing context for undertaking regional development In the 20th century development of the former planned economies Bulgaria Czech Republic Hungary Poland Romania and Slovakia was defined by these countries differences rather than their common ideological roots These disparities altered over time and were marked by changing social structures However the ranking of regions has remained the same as core areas have strengthened their positions while the structural obstacles to the modernisation of peripheral areas have remained due to a lack of coherent regional policy This book examines the specific regional development paths of Central and Eastern European countries and evaluates the effects of the determining factors of this process Through analysis of the system of objectives instruments and institutions used in different eras and case studies of Hungary East Germany and Germany development models are established and compared with Western European patterns The book summarises the experiences of Central and Eastern European regional cooperation and examines the basic nature of the cohesion problems of the Carpathian Basin trans national macro region It confirms by comparative historical analyses that the transformation was indeed unique This book will make a welcome addition to the literature for students and academics interested in the broader picture of Central and Eastern European politics future integration within the European Union and the history of regional development processes How To Find Information: A Guide For Researchers Rumsey, Sally, 2008-04-01 Researchers need to find information to inform their work and support their arguments This book works through the process from planning to evaluation and results Reconstructing the University David John Frank, Jay Gabler, 2006 Detailed study of transformations in the teaching and research priorities of universities worldwide examining how these changes correspond to globally institutionalized understandings of reality
