Counseling Cross-Culturally David J. Hesselgrave, 2002-01-08 Christians are being called upon increasingly to care counsel and cure across cultural boundaries writes the author Of course foreign missionaries counsel people from other cultures but so do many pastors particularly those in urban settings Because Christian counseling theory presupposes that counselor and counselee share the same culture the insights of this discipline must be brought together meaningfully with the cross cultural perspectives of missiology Counseling Cross Culturally pioneers this new field After surveying approaches to counseling in the West and those in the non Western world the author develops a theory of Christian cross cultural counseling The final part consistent with the author's broad view of counseling discusses counseling concerned with the well being of people Christian conversion spiritual growth and development of a Christian life style and Christian service Numerous case studies drawn from a variety of cultures provide realistic examples of the questions that counselors will encounter A psychologist who trains Christian workers for cross cultural service describes this book as a helpful thoughtful study of complex issues surrounding counseling It is extremely valuable to expose any missionary candidate to this type of book It broadens awareness to cross cultural issues and touches on common problems of missionary counselors Counseling Cross Culturally is an admirable attempt to integrate a conservative evangelical theology with the complexities of culture and life

Mission: The Biblical Jonathan Lewis,1994 Back by popular demand this three volume work is now reprinted as a single volume This manual leads the student into a deeper broader mission understanding and vision by covering the Biblical historical foundations the strategic dimensions and cross cultural considerations      Models of Contextual Theology Stephen B. Bevans,2002 Stephen B Bevans s Models of Contextual Theology has become a staple in courses on theological method and as a handbook used by missionaries and other Christians concerned with the Christian tradition s understanding of itself in relation to culture First published in 1992 and now in its seventh printing in English with translations underway into Spanish Korean and Indonesian Bevans s book is a judicious examination of what the terms contextual theology and to contextualize mean In the revised and expanded edition Bevans adds a counter cultural model to the five presented in the first edition the translation the anthropological the praxis the synthetic and the transcendental model This means that readers will be introduced to the way in which figures such as Stanley Hauerwas John Milbank Lesslie Newbigin and occasionally Pope John Paul II need to be taken into account The author s revisions also incorporate suggestions made by reviewers to enhance the clarity of the original three chapters on the nature of contextual theology and the five models

Contextualization David J. Hesselgrave,Edward Rommen,2000 This expert analysis of contextualization from David Hesselgrave and Ed Rommen skillfully brings the meanings proposals and tasks of contextualization into clearer focus creating the most comprehensive treatise on the subject produced by evangelical scholars      The Art of Personal Evangelism Will McRaney,2003-05-01 A textbook written in a conversational style and tone practical in nature but providing the necessary foundation to understand the principles and practices of evangelism      Pentecostal Exorcism Opoku Onyinah,2019-05-21 Witchcraft and exorcism have long been dominant features of life in African cultures This unique book provides a thorough field research based description and analysis of a specifically Pentecostal Christian response to these phenomena within the Akan culture of Ghana Anthropological studies generally claim that the ultimate goal of exorcism is modernisation Using interdisciplinary studies with a theological focus the author takes a different view arguing that it is divinatory consultation or an inquiry into the sacred and the search for meaning that underlies the current deliverance ministry where the focus is to identify and break down the so called demonic forces by the power of God and to deliver people from their torment The deliverance ministry is one attempt to contextualise the gospel for African people However preoccupation with demonisation and exorcistic practices is found to bring Christianity into tension with the Akan culture family ties and other religions In order to develop a properly safeguarded ministry of exorcism in an African context the author examines contextualisation and suggests the integration into African Christianity of divinatory consultation which has strong resonances with the biblical concept of prayer      Cross-cultural Theology Daniel J. Adams,1987      A Survey of World Missions Robin Hadaway,2020-05-01 Robin Hadaway presents a full survey of world missions addressing biblical theological and historical foundations as well as culture context philosophy and missions strategy      Cross Cultural
