Intercultural Communication Conflicts Christina Herzog, 2010

Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 Universit Toulouse II Le Mirail language English abstract Our world today is characterized by a growing number of contacts resulting in communication between people with different languages and cultural background The contact with persons from other cultures is often frustrating and full of misunderstanding Good intentions and a friendly approach don't seem to be sufficient Respect for other cultures is one of the key needs in communication No one should look down on those with different customs languages or cultures but try to look through their eyes and to understand what and how they are seeing the world Communication between cultures takes place because of contacts within the areas of tourism education science entertainment but also business politics or immigration In all these cross cultural contacts communication needs to be constructive without any misunderstandings just because the group to which a person belongs is different Currently new types of relationships are presenting communication challenges that few people are ready to meet In this paper I intend to deal with the concept of communication especially non verbal communication and its features in communicating a message when it happens between different cultures

A Paradigm for Business Communication across Cultures: Theoretical Highlights for Practice Dr. Yongqiang LIU _□_, 2015-01-01 Today's global citizens operate business and management endeavors on a global scale Globalization generates an increasing demand for effective communication in diverse cultural contexts and challenges the relevance of culture in operating businesses in the global village Communication differences are apparent in many scenarios Expatriates of international organizations operating abroad adopt their native cultural values to motivate employees of foreign cultures with an entirely different perspective They use one culture's motives to move people from other cultures In global marketing communication the communicators use values systems of their native culture to develop advertising for other cultures They use categorizations of one culture to describe others Such divergence in attitudes perspectives and priorities of suppliers and customers with different cultural backgrounds have led to many project failures in international organizations An in depth understanding of cultural backgrounds and the potential impact on communication of the people one is interacting with can increase the probability of business success among investors managers entrepreneurs and employees operating in diverse cultures However effective cross cultural business communication needs to recognize and adopt an interdisciplinary perspective in understanding the cultural forces Leung K et al 2005 Therefore we need a multidisciplinary paradigm to carry on effective and successful business communication in our contemporary global village _ _ _ _ _
