Excellence in Public Relations and Communication Management James E. Grunig, 2013-10-18 This book is the initial volume coming out of the excellence project a comprehensive research effort commissioned by the IABC International Association of Business Communicators Research Foundation The purpose of this project was to answer two fundamental questions about public relations What are the characteristics of an excellent communication department How does excellent public relations make an organization more effective and how much is that contribution worth economically The research team began its work with a thorough review of the literature in public relations and related disciplines relevant to these questions What started as a literature review however has ended in a general theory of public relations one that integrates most of the wide range of ideas about and practices of communication management in organizations Social

Administration: An introduction to human services management Simon Slavin, 1985 Featuring pragmatic guidelines for all administrators and practitioners in the social services this book presents both theory and case materials to give the student of social administration a textured understanding of the social agency and its dilemmas and walks the student through the very practical daily problems and challenges Published in two parts Volume 1 An Introduction to Human Services Management Volume 2 Managing Finances Personnel and Information in Human Services The Communicative Constitution of Organizations Robert D. McPhee, Karen K. Myers, Joel O. Iverson, 2025-02-04 Discusses interrelations or confluences among communication flows as the Four Flows Model of organizational communication The Four Flows Model illustrates how communication makes an organization what it is presenting in depth information on the Communicative Constitution of Organizations CCO Written by a team of renowned experts in the field this comprehensive resource is designed for all those involved in the study of organizations particularly advanced students and researchers in Business Sociology Communication Studies and the subdiscipline of Organizational Communication Organized into eleven substantial chapters the text clearly and thoroughly explains all key aspects of Four Flows Theory 4F and provides a theoretical grounding in its parent Structuration Theory ST The book draws upon original research and evidence to demonstrate that organizations are not constituted in merely one way but rather by four analytically different yet interconnected characteristic flows Membership Negotiation Self Structuring Activity Coordination and Institutional Positioning Throughout the book the authors describe their theoretical developments through discussion of other key schools of CCO thinking as well as important issues such as critical perspectives on organizing Articulating the significance of the Four Flows Theory for CCO scholarship this innovative volume Discusses interrelations or confluences among flows and explores relations of the Four Flows Model with alternate perspectives Emphasizes the need to ask broader questions in CCO theorizing regarding the ways socio material things are constituted Lays out the context of 4F theory and identifies the key issues CCO theories should address

Describes how conlocutions allow sensitive exploration of relations Introduces the concept of transtruction to Structuration Theory explaining how communication produces and reproduces organizations Highlighting the importance of studying organizations as novel social entities that rule the world The Four Flows Model The Communicative Constitution of Organizations is an excellent textbook for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses on Organizational Communication Structuration Theory Organizational Communication Management Organizational Studies and Public Administration as well as an invaluable reference work for researchers and practitioners in the field Communication and
