Communion With The Absolute:

Communion with the Absolute Vitalij Garber, 2004-08-31 Dr. Pusey George William Erskine Russell, 1907 Human Rights and Constituent Power Illan Wall, 2013-03 Engaging the current political and jurisprudential thought on constituent power with a radical political re thinking of human rights Ilan Rua Wall develops the idea that human rights must be considered as a non metaphysical process of right ing Institutes of the Christian Religion Emanuel Vogel Gerhart, 1891

The Princeton Theological Review , 1914 The Spiritualist Newspaper , Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: Fiction-Hyksos James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1914 Scope theology philosophy ethics of various religions and ethical systems and relevant portions of anthropology mythology folklore biology psychology economics and sociology Origen's Revenge Brian Patrick Mitchell, 2021-10-11 Is the difference of male and female to be completely shaken off so that men and women are no longer men and women but merely human beings The great seventh century saint Maximus the Confessor said yes but such thinking is difficult if not impossible to reconcile with much else in Christian tradition that obliges men and women to live as either men or women Origen s Revenge contrasts the two main sources of early Christian thinking on male and female the generally negative view of Greek philosophy limiting sexual distinction to the body and holding the body in low regard and the much more positive view of Hebrew Scripture in which sexual distinction and reproduction are both deemed naturally good and necessary for human existence These two views account for much of the controversy in early Christianity concerning marriage and monasticism They also still contribute to current controversies over sex roles gender identity and sexual ethics Origen s Revenge also develops the more Hebrew line of early Christian thought to propose a new understanding of male and female with a firmer grounding in scripture tradition theology and philosophy and with profound implications for all human relationships whether social political or spiritual Seeing the World and Knowing God Paul S. Fiddes, 2013-07-25 This book aims to create a Christian theology of wisdom for the present day in discussion with two sets of conversation partners The first are writers of the wisdom literature in ancient Israel and the Jewish community in Alexandria Here special attention is given to the biblical books of Proverbs Job and Ecclesiastes The second conversation partners are philosophers and thinkers of the late modern age among them Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas Julia Kristeva Paul Ricoeur and Hannah Arendt In the late modern period there has been a reaction against an inherited conception of the conscious and rational self as mastering and even subjugating the world around and there has been an attempt to overcome the consequent split between the subject and objects of observation Paul S Fiddes enters into dialogue with these late modern concerns about the relation between the self and the world proposing that the wisdom which is indicated by the ancient Hebraic concept of okmah integrates a practical wisdom of handling daily experience with the kind of wisdom which is attunement to the world and ultimately to God as creator and sustainer of all Fiddes brings detailed exegesis of texts from the ancient wisdom literature into interaction with an account of the subject in late modern thought in order to form a theology in which seeing the world is knowing a God whose transcendent reality is always immanent in the signs and bodies of the world He thus argues that participation in a triune relational God shapes a wisdom that addresses problems of a dominating self and opens the human person to others An Enquiry Into the Existence of God Santosh Chandra Sengupta,1959 Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature John McClintock,1891

Judaic cultures have a commitment to language that is exceptional Language in many form texts books and scrolls learning interpretation material practices that generate material practices are central to Judaic conduct experience and spirituality In this Judaic traditions differ from philosophical and theological ones that make language secondary Traditional metaphysics has privileged the immaterial and unchanging as unchanging truth that language can at best convey and at worst distort Such traditional metaphysics has come under critique since Nietzsche in ways that the author explores Shira Wolosky argues that Judaic traditions converge with contemporary metaphysical critique rather than being its target Focusing on the work of Derrida Levinas Scholem and others the author examines traditions of Judaic interpretation against backgrounds of biblical exegesis sign theory as it recasts language meaning in ways that concord with Judaic textuality negative theology as it differs in Judaic tradition from those which negate language itself and lastly outline a discourse ethics that draws on Judaic language theory This study is directed to students and scholars of Judaic thought religious studies and theology theory of interpretation Levinas and other modern Jewish philosophical writers placing them in broader contexts of philosophy theology and language theory It is shown how Jewish discourses on language address urgent problems of value and norms in the contemporary world that has challenged traditional anchors of truth and meaning
