Communism Christian Faith:

Communism and Christian Faith Lester DeKoster, 1962 Introductory guide to contrasting Communist beliefs and Christian principles calling for Christian social action as an antidote Marxist Analysis and Christian Faith René Coste, 1985 Red Theology: On the Christian Communist Tradition Roland Boer, 2019-02-19 In Red Theology On the Christian Communist Tradition Roland Boer presents key moments in the 2 000 year tradition of Christian communism Defined by the two features of alternative communal practice and occasional revolutionary action Christian communism is predicated on profound criticism of the way of the world The book begins with Karl Kautsky the leading thinker of second generation Marxism and his oft ignored identification of this tradition From there it offers a series of case studies that deal with European instances the Russian Revolution and to East Asia Here we find the emergence of Christian communism not only in China but also in North Korea This book will be a vital resource for scholars and students of religion and the many aspects of socialist tradition Christianity, Communism, and History William Hordern, 1954 Christian, Communist and Socialist in the South Africa Deon Rossouw, 1993-12-31 Communism and Christian Faith Lester De Koster, 1950 The Christian Faith and the Marxist Criticism of Religion Helmut Gollwitzer, 1970 Christianity and Communism Today John Coleman Bennett, 1960 Christians and Communists Ans J. van der Bent, 1980 Revolutionary Religion Roger Bradshaigh Lloyd, 1938 Communist Faith and Christian Faith : a Report of the Committee on Christian Faith, the United Church of Canada United Church of Canada. Committee on Christian Faith, Donald Dwight Evans, 1964 Communism and Christian Faith Howard Ingli James, 1950 Communism & Christian Faith Lester Dekoster, 1960 Christians and Marxists José Míguez Bonino, 1976 First delivered as the 1974 London lecture in contemporary Christianity Includes bibliographical references and index The Christian-Marxist Dialogue Peter Hebblethwaite, 1977 A Christian's Handbook on Communism , 1962 Communism and the Christian Faith Clarence Bauman, 1980 Comrades and Christians David I. Kertzer, 1980-03-31 This book examines the popular bases of Communist influence in Italy focusing on the struggle between the Catholic Church and the Communist Party for the allegiance of the Italian people The author details the ways in which the citizens resolve the central paradox of Italy which lies in its beings the home both of the Vatican and of the largest Communist party of any non Communist nation He discusses the local structure of the Party including its many allied organisations and the nature of participation in Party affairs and stresses its role in local social life In this study Professor Kertzer draws upon the experiences and observations of a year spent in a working class quarter of Bologna the capital of Italian Communism While the national Communist Party calls for conciliation with the Church there is an ancient tradition of anti clericalism in this area Moreover the official Church position excludes the possibility of people being both Catholic and Communist The implications of this situation for local level tactics of Church and Party and how people divide their allegiances between the competing claims form the primary theme of the book

World Christianity and Marxism Denis R. Janz, 1998-04-09 Denis Janz argues that the encounter with Marxism has been the defining event for twentieth century Christianity No other worldview shook Christianity more dramatically and no other movement had as profound an impact on so many Now the Cold War is over and as we approach the end of the century we need Janz says to ask ourselves what happened This book is the first unified and comprehensive attempt to analyze this historic meeting between these two antagonistic worlds of thought and action The intellectual foundation of this antagonism is to be found in Karl Marx himself and thus the book begins with an account of Marx s assault on Christianity All the diverse philosophical and political manifestations of Marxism were ultimately rooted in Marx s thought and supporters based their greater or lesser hostilities toward Christianity on their reading of his critique Janz follows this with an overview of Christian responses to Marx extending from the mid 19th century to the onset of the Cold War He argues that within this time frame Christianity s negation of Marx was not absolute the loud no to Marx bore with it an important if muted yes With this intellectual groundwork in place Janz turns to an examination of the encounter as it unfolded in specific national contexts the United States the Soviet Union Poland Nicaragua Cuba China and Albania The experiences of these countries varied widely from Poland where Christianity maintained its strongest independence to Nicaragua where a Christian alliance with Marxism contributed to revolutionary change to Albania where a Stalinist government attempted to abolish religion entirely From this survey emerges the evidence that world Christianity has clearly internalized some of the prominent features of its antagonist suggesting that the Marxist project is not as utterly defunct as many have assumed

Religion and the Cold War D. Kirby, 2002-12-13 Although seen widely as the twentieth century s great religious war as a conflict between the god fearing and the godless the religious dimension of the Cold War has never been subjected to a scholarly critique This unique study shows why religion is a key Cold War variable A specially commissioned collection of new scholarship it provides fresh insights into the complex nature of the Cold War It has profound resonance today with the resurgence of religion as a political force in global society
