Doak Barnett, 1960 The Soviet Union and Communist China, 1945-1950 Dieter Heinzig, 2004 Drawing on a wealth of new sources this work documents the evolving relationship between Moscow and Peking in the twentieth century Using newly available Russian and Chinese archival documents memoirs written in the 1980s and 1990s and interviews with high ranking Soviet and Chinese eyewitnesses the book provides the basis for a new interpretation of this relationship and a glimpse of previously unknown events that shaped the Sino Soviet alliance An appendix contains translated Chinese and Soviet documents many of which are being published for the first time The book focuses mainly on Communist China's relationship with Moscow after the conclusion of the treaty between the Soviet Union and Kuomintang China in 1945 up until the signing of the treaty between Moscow and the Chinese Communist Party in 1950 It also looks at China's relationship with Moscow from 1920 to 1945 as well as developments from 1950 to the present The author reevaluates existing sources and literature on the topic and demonstrates that the alliance was reached despite disagreements and distrust on both sides and was not an inevitable conclusion He also shows that the relationship between the two Communist parties was based on national interest politics and not on similar ideological convictions The Birth of Communist China Charles Patrick Fitzgerald, 1964 First published in 1952 as Revolution in China Major Doctrines of Communist China John Wilson Lewis, 1964 From the Preface When this collection of Chinese Communist writings was first conceived few such compilations of primary materials were available for the general reader That situation changed rather markedly in the past year What distinguishes this volume is its attempt to combine official Party documents with statements by ordinary Chinese and to sample the vast source material on specific categories of doctrine These selections include some of the most significant statements by Mao Tse tung Liu Shaochi Chou En lai Teng Hsiao ping and Lu Ting yi as well as Central Committee directives articles by lower level Party members and the Party and state constitutions Communist China 1955-1959, 1971 American Policy Toward Communist China, 1949-1969 Foster Rhea Dulles, 1972 Two decades of rivalry and antagonism and their consequences on American decisions for involvement in Korea Vietnam and Southeast Asia in general Chinese Medicine in Early Communist China, 1945-1963 Kim Taylor, 2004-08-02 Using original sources this significant text looks at the transformation of Chinese medicine from a marginal side lined medical practice of the early twentieth century to an essential and high profile part of the national health care system under the Chinese Communist Party. The political, economic and social motives which drove this promotion are analyzed and the extraordinary role that Chinese medicine was meant to play in Mao Zedong's revolution is fully explored for the first time, making a major contribution to the history of Chinese medicine. Understanding Communist China Tai-Chün Kuo, Ramon Hawley Myers, 1986.
