Communities of Resistance and Resilience in the Post-Industrial City Daniel Holland, 2024-08-01 This book is about the grassroots community revitalization movement in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Lyon France between 1980 and 2010 an extension of the post WWII civil rights campaign that is rarely considered It tells the story of residents attempts to improve their communities through social capital or people power In positive ways citizens created vibrant attractive neighborhoods But their actions also generated unintended consequences such as high real estate prices and minority displacement that threatened to unravel their hard work Communities of Resistance and Resilience is an ethnographic survey that relies on oral histories archival research on the ground site surveys and the author s personal experience as a neighborhood reinvestment practitioner for more than 30 years It brings to life stories that would otherwise remain obscured such as the lingering impact of the March for Equality and Against Racism organized in Lyon in 1983 and the formation of the Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment Group in Pittsburgh in 1988 both of which launched national movements This is of great use to scholars of transatlantic history as well as a general audience interested in modern social movements in the United States and France Engineering & Contracting ,1918 Engineering and Contracting ,1918 Reform of the Economic

Punishment, Communication, and Community R. A. Duff, 2003-05-15 Part of the Studies in Crime and Public Policy series this book written by one of the top philosophers of punishment examines the main trends in penal theorizing over the past three decades Duff asks what can justify criminal punishment and then explores the legitimacy of actual practices by examining what would count as adequate justification for them Duff argues that a communicative conception of punishment which he presents as a third way between consequentialist and retributive theories offers the most fruitful way of understanding punishment s meaning and justification Duff addresses such question as how much sentences should be constrained by proportionality requirements what modalities of punishment best communicate their intended meaning and what decisionmaking procedures he envisions This book will appeal to criminologists philosophers and others interested in theories of punishment Ebony ,1975-07 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Ebony ,1975-07 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Bulletin, Chicago School of Sanitary Instruction ...
