Hunter, 2007-01-26 Marriage Celibacy and Heresy in Ancient Christianity is the first major study in English of the heretic Jovinian and the Jovinianist controversy David G Hunter examines early Christian views on marriage and celibacy in the first three centuries and the development of an anti heretical tradition He provides a thorough analysis of the responses of Jovinian's main opponents including Pope Siricius Ambrose Jerome Pelagius and Augustine In the course of his discussion Hunter sheds new light on the origins of Christian asceticism the rise of clerical celibacy the development of Marian doctrine and the formation of orthodoxy and heresy in early Christianity Building the Body of Christ Daniel C.

Cochran, 2020-11-17 In Building the Body of Christ Daniel C Cochran argues that monumental Christian art and architecture played a crucial role in the formation of individual and communal identities in late antique Italy The ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs that emerged during the fourth and fifth centuries not only reflected Christianity's changing status within the Roman Empire but also actively shaped those who used them Emphasizing the importance of materiality and the body in early Christian thought and practice Cochran shows how bishops and their supporters employed the visual arts to present a Christian identity rooted in the sacred past but expressed in the present through church unity and episcopal authority He weaves together archaeological and textual evidence to contextualize case studies from Rome Aquileia and Ravenna showing how these sites responded to the diversity of early Christianity as expressed through private rituals and the imperial appropriation of the saints Cochran shows how these early ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs worked in conjunction with the liturgy to persuade individuals to adopt alternative beliefs practices and values that contributed to the formation of institutional Christianity and the Christianization of late antique Italy A People's Church Agostino

Paravicini Bagliani, Neslihan Şenocak, 2023-06-15 A People's Church brings together a distinguished international group of historians to provide a sweeping introduction to Christian religious life and institutions in medieval Italy. Each essay treats a single theme as broadly as possible, highlighting both the unique aspects of medieval Christianity on the Italian peninsula and the beliefs and practices it shared with other Christian societies. Because of its long tradition of communal self governance, Christianity in medieval Italy perhaps more than anywhere else was truly a people's church. At the same time, its exceptional urban wealth and literacy rates, along with its rich and varied intellectual and artistic culture, led to diverse forms of religious devotion and institutions. Contributors: Maria Pia Alberzoni on heresy, Frances Andrews on urban religion, Cécile Caby on monasticism, Giovanna Casagrande on mendicants, George Dameron on Florence, Antonella Degl'Innocenti on saints, Marina Gazzini on lay confraternities, Maureen C. Miller on bishops, Agostino Paravicini Bagliani and Pietro Silanos on the papacy and Italian politics, Antonio Rigo on clerical confraternities, Neslihan Şenocak on the pievi and care of souls, Giovanni Vitolo on Naples.

The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity Oliver Nicholson, 2018-04-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity is the first comprehensive reference book covering every aspect of history, culture, religion, and life in Europe, the Mediterranean, and the Near East, including the Persian Empire and Central Asia, between the mid 3rd and the mid 8th centuries AD, the era now generally known as Late Antiquity. This period saw the re-establishment of the Roman Empire, its conversion to Christianity, and its replacement in the West by Germanic kingdoms, the continuing Roman Empire in the Eastern Mediterranean, the Persian Sassanian Empire, and the rise of Islam. Consisting of over 1.5 million words in more than 5,000 A-Z entries and written by more than 400 contributors, it is the long-awaited middle volume of a series bridging a significant period of history between those covered by the acclaimed Oxford Classical Dictionary and The Oxford Dictionary of the Middle Ages. The scope of the Dictionary is broad and multi-disciplinary, across the wide geographical span covered from Western Europe and the Mediterranean as far as the Near East and Central Asia; it provides succinct and pertinent information on political history, law, and administration, military history, religion, and philosophy, education, social and economic history, material culture, art, and architecture, science, literature, and many other areas. Drawing on the latest scholarship and with a formidable international team of advisers and contributors, The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity aims to establish itself as the essential reference companion to a period that is attracting increasing attention from scholars and students worldwide.

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so.
