Community, Control and Change Adele M. E. Jones,1995      The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region      Learning and Mobilising for

Community Development Lynda Shevellar,2016-04-22 Learning and Mobilising for Community Development introduces the reader to different ways of thinking about and organising community based education and training within different settings Stories from the global south and north illustrate approaches to collective learning and collective action The book provides not only an insight into the how to of community based education and training but through a range of applications demonstrates the often unspoken shadow side of the developmental work we undertake The first section of the book outlines the key elements that underpin effective community based education and training It then locates community based education and training within a broader pedagogical project by tracing the tradition of transformative learning and education The second half of the book focuses on stories and practice distilling the application of theory and frameworks The practitioners within this book emerge from unique and challenging contexts From civil resistance in West Papua and youth empowerment in South Africa to financial freedom in Australia these diverse experiences speak to a common quest for social change and justice      South Pacific Bibliography ,1996      American Book Publishing Record ,2006      Bibliographic Index ,1995
