Community In Limbo:

Community in Limbo, an Anthropological Study ... Dennison Nash, 1970 Benchmarking Biodiversity in an Era of Rapid Change W. Douglas Robinson, Patrick Jansen, Carlos A. Peres, 2022-01-20 Passage to the Center Daniel Tobin, 2021-10-21 Nobel Laureate Seamus Heaney author of nine collections of poetry and three volumes of influential essays is regarded by many as the greatest Irish poet since Yeats Passage to the Center is the most comprehensive critical treatment to date on Heaney's poetry and the first to study Heaney's body of work up to Seeing Things and The Spirit Level. It is also the first to examine the poems from the perspective of religion one of Heaney's guiding preoccupations. According to Tobin the growth of Heaney's poetry may be charted through the recurrent figure of the center a key image in the relationship that evolved over time between the poet and his inherited place an evolution that involved the continual re-evaluation and re-vision of imaginative boundaries. In a way that previous studies have not Tobin's work examines Heaney's poetry in the context of modernist and postmodernist concerns about the desacralizing of civilization and provides a challenging engagement with the work of a living master.

On Study: Giorgio Agamben and educational potentiality Tyson E. Lewis, 2013-06-26 In an educational landscape dominated by discourses and practices of learning standardized testing and the pressure to succeed what space and time remain for studying. In this book Tyson E. Lewis argues that studying is a distinctive educational experience with its own temporal spatial methodological aesthetic and phenomenological dimensions. Unlike learning which presents the actualization of a student's potential in recognizable and measurable forms study emphasizes the experience of potentiality freed from predetermined outcomes. Studying suspends and interrupts the conventional logic of learning opening up a new space and time for educational freedom to emerge. Drawing upon the work of Italian philosopher and critical theorist Giorgio Agamben Lewis provides a conceptually and poetically rich account of the interconnections between potentiality freedom and study. Through a mixture of educational critique phenomenological description and ontological analysis Lewis redeems study as an invaluable and urgent educational experience that provides alternatives to the economization of education and the cooptation of potentiality in the name of efficiency. The resulting discussion uncovers multiple forms of study in a variety of unexpected places from the political poetry of Adrienne Rich to tinkering classrooms to abandoned manifestos and finally to Occupy Wall Street. By reconnecting education with potentiality this book provides an educational philosophy that undermines the logic of learning and assessment and turns our attention to the interminable paradoxes of studying. The book will be key reading for scholars in the fields of educational philosophy critical pedagogy foundations of education composition and rhetoric and critical thinking and literacy studies.
