Community Service Encounter With Strangers:

Community Service and Higher Learning Robert A. Rhoads, 1997-01-01 Portrays the experiences and development of students as they commit themselves to community service during their college years Higher Education in the United States James J. F. Forest, Kevin Kinser, 2002-06-21 Surveys the changing landscape of American higher education from academic freedom to virtual universities from campus crime to Pell Grants from the Student Privacy Act to student diversity In the years following World War II college and university enrollment doubled students revolted faculty unionized and community colleges evolved Tuition and technology soared as did the number of first generation minority and women students These changes radically transformed the American system of postsecondary education Today that system is in trouble Its aging professoriate prepares for retirement but low academic salaries can no longer attract the best minds to replace them A flood of corporate dollars funds commercial research but money for basic research the seedbed of American scientific preeminence has dried up Colleges and universities also face heated competition with for profit education providers for students faculty and external financial support along with the costs of providing remedial education to growing numbers of students who are unprepared for postsecondary education Higher Education in the United States provides a comprehensive analysis of these issues and others that scholars and practitioners of higher education study discuss and grapple with on a daily basis Handbook of Research on Adult Learning and Development M Cecil Smith, Nancy DeFrates-Densch, Assistant Editor, 2008-11-19 The time is right for this comprehensive state of the art Handbook that analyzes integrates and summarizes theoretical advances and research findings on adult development and learning a rapidly growing field reflecting demographic shifts toward an aging population in Western societies Featuring contributions from prominent scholars across diverse disciplinary fields education developmental psychology public policy gerontology neurology public health sociology family studies and adult education the volume is organized around six themes theoretical perspectives on adult development and learning research methods in adult development research on adult development research on adult learning aging and gerontological research policy perspectives on aging The Handbook is an essential reference for researchers faculty graduate students and practitioners whose work pertains to adult and lifespan development and learning Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning ,2000 Teaching in Nursing E-Book Diane M.
