Anti-Racist Social Work Lena Dominelli, 2017-09-21 Fully revised and updated throughout this fourth edition of Lena Dominelli's influential book retains its reputation as the go to text on anti racist social work practice As racism continues to present a problem in contemporary society the growth of the Far Right the rise of Islamophobia and the victory of the Brexit camp in the EU referendum the need to address racist attitudes and behaviour that affect diverse groups of people in the UK remains an urgent one A truly classic text Anti Racist Social Work has been providing students and practitioners with a comprehensive guide to the debates and practices on racism in contemporary society since 1988 New to this Edition Includes a brand new chapter on Social Work Across Borders Incorporates discussion of recent events and developments to encourage critical thinking and analyses their effect on practice Offers examples from across the globe at both micro and macro level

Social Work Vivienne E. Cree, Trish McCulloch, 2023-04-04 Building on the successful 1st edition this reader brings together some of the most significant ideas that have informed social work practice over the last fifty years At the same time as presenting these foundational extracts the book includes commentaries that allow the reader to understand the selected extracts on their own terms as well as to be aware of their relations to each other and to the wider social work context There is no settled view or easy consensus about what social work is and should be and the ideas reflected in this volume are themselves diverse and complex The world of social work has changed greatly over the last ten years and this new edition reflects that change with new material on the decolonisation of social work knowledges the greater emphasis on inter disciplinarity and co production and the new concern for identities With an accessible introduction to contextualise the selections the book is divided into three main sections each presenting key texts drawn from a wide range of perspectives psychological sociological philosophical educational and political as well as perspectives that are grounded in the experiences of practitioners and those who use services which have contributed to the development of the profession of social work knowledge and values for social work and practice in social work By providing students and practitioners with an easy way into reading first hand some of the most interesting foundational texts of the subject it will be required reading for all undergraduate and postgraduate programmes and professionals undertaking post qualifying training

The Anti-Racist Social Worker Tanya Moore, Glory Simango, 2025-02-28 This is the story of an anti racist campaign staged by social workers and allied health professionals which encourages readers to consider their own possibilities for anti racist action The murder of George Floyd in May 2020 and subsequent expression of anger frustration and grief at the continued existence of racism led to more sophisticated and honest conversations about racism and its impact Social work also started to recognise its own problem with racist systems and its failure as a profession that strives for social justice to have addressed this in any meaningful way The Anti Racist Social Worker describe a successful campaign of anti racist direct action that was staged by a small group of social workers and occupational therapists The opening chapter tells the story of the campaign from the coming together of the campaign group to the concluding day of action Subsequent chapters are written by campaign members at different stages of their career from student social worker to Chief Social Worker for England Each describes journeys to and stories of anti racist activism These stories are about either the writers experiences of racism and how this translated into action or their growing understanding of the impact of racism and subsequent decision to take personal action Importantly each chapter offers a personal case study and therefore a suggestion of individual anti racist action that can be taken by social workers The Anti Racist Social Worker is a call for action told through individual stories It shows how those in social care and allied health professions can contribute in a meaningful way to the creation of the change we need and encourages everyone to consider their own roles in dismantling racism

Social Services Departments and Race Naomi Connelly, 1985

Racism and Social Inequality in Canada Vic Satzewich, 1998 The chapters in this books seeks to answer the questions to what extent does racism continue to inform and and structure how are institutions operate today What is the social meaning of race in contemporary Canadian society and what is the most effective way to combat racism in all its forms The contributores analyze the conditions that give rise to racism the extent to which racism permeates social institutions how groups of people have organized against racism and the ways racism is linked to class gender and ethnicity Reading Between The Lines: Toward an Understanding of Current Social Problems Amanda Konradi,Martha Schmidt,2003-07-31 Drawing from a wide selection of current research and writings Reading Between the Lines brings together accessible readings that examine a broad range of social problems and reflect different conceptual approaches The text provides a conceptual framework for understanding social problems and enables an integrated race class and gender analysis

Welfare Practice in a Multicultural Society David Ray Cox,1989 Social Change & Social Welfare Practice Jude Petruchenia,Rosamund Thorpe,1990 Articles discuss social welfare practice which has worked towards social change article by Robyn Lynn and Ruth Pye annotated separately Social Service Abstracts ,1990 Intersections of Gender, Race, and Class Marcia Texler Segal,Theresa A. Martinez,2007 Journal of Education for Social Work ,2009 Critical Social Policy David Taylor,1996-10-14 This invaluable Reader represents a social relations of welfare perspective developed in the journal Critical Social Policy over the last fifteen years The textbook highlights issues of gender race sexuality disability and age as central to the analysis of welfare These social relations are shown to underpin questions of need empowerment and social citizenship The book raises questions about universal and particular arguments for welfare and suggests ways in which welfare strategies may begin to overcome the traditional dichotomies between rights and needs

Anti-racist Resources ,1988 C.R.I.S.: Anthropology, applied sociology, culture, death and death rates, differentiation and stratification, group interactions ,1978 Journal of Continuing Social Work Education ,1984 Steeltown U.S.A Sherry Lee Linkon,John Russo,2002 Once the symbol of a robust steel industry and blue collar economy Youngstown Ohio and its famous Jeannette Blast Furnace have become key icons in the tragic tale of American deindustrialization Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo examine the inevitable tension between those discordant visions which continue to exert great power over Steeltown s citizens as they struggle to redefine their lives When the Jenny was shut down in 1978 50 000 Youngstown workers lost their jobs cutting the heart out of the local economy Even as the community organized a nationally recognized effort to save the mills the city was rocked by economic devastation runaway crime and mob scandal problems that persist twenty five years later In the midst of these struggles the Jenny remained standing as a proud symbol of the community s glory days still a dominant force in the construction of both individual and collective identities in Youngstown Focusing on stories and images that both reflect and perpetuate how Youngstown understands itself as a community Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo have forged a historical and cultural study of the relationship between community memory work and confi

Transcultural Counselling in Action Patricia D'Ardenne,Aruna Mahtani,1989 Can a counselor s or client s culture affect the counseling process Should counselors confine themselves to counseling only those from their own culture Transcultural Counselling in Action offers a new approach to the counseling process that addresses the problems often posed by cultural differences Drawing on examples from community groups liaison and advocacy workers mental health specialists and from professionals already working with other cultures this practical volume walks the counselor through the transcultural counseling process Main themes are summarized the response of professionals to the process are evaluated and the implications for counseling in a multicultural society are addressed With so little literature existing on transcultural counseling this volume will serve as an essential guide to anyone working with groups or individuals from other cultures The book serves its purpose well in terms of both the transcultural issues highlighted and the handling of issues arising in the process of transcultural counseling Contemporary Psychology The fundamental assumptions made by the authors are evident throughout the book and highlight the need for the reader to question their personal stance on these issues This in itself is a useful exercise for the transcultural counsellor This book meets its aim of providing guidelines of good practice in counselling
