Community Organizers:

We Make Change Kristin Layng Szakos, Joe Szakos, 2007 Community organizers work at their jobs because they are passionate because they believe that change is possible and because they enjoy working with people Although it is not an occupation that leads to great wealth community organizers can make a living at it They get salaries pensions and health insurance They raise families They do well by doing good This book explores the world of community organizing through the voices of real people working in the field in small towns and city neighborhoods women and men of different races and economic backgrounds ranging in age from those in their twenties to those in their sixties Fourteen in depth profiles tell the life stories of a cross section of the diverse people who choose the life of an organizer Other chapters focused on issues of organizing are tapestries of experience woven from the 81 interviews the authors conducted

Community Organizing and Development Herbert J. Rubin, Irene Rubin, 2008 This revised edition of a well known and widely used text in community organizing and development fully examines the broad and changing political and social settings that influence actions while portraying the infrastructure of social change the knowledge personnel and organizations that enable such work to be successfully accomplished The text brings together the practicalities of organizing and development fund raising working out news releases running an organization orchestrating political actions academic knowledge and explains why various approaches work as well as the values and ideologies that guide what is to be done It provides the foundations of organizing and development work and then describes how activists through following either a social confrontation model or an economic and social production approach can respond to economic and social problems

Community Organizing Ross J. Gittell, Avis Vidal, 1998-06-10 Community Organizing provides new insight into an important national challenge how to stimulate the formation of genuinely community based organizations and effective citizen action in neighborhoods that have not spawned these efforts spontaneously Since Robert Putnam's identification of the role of social capital in regional governance and economic development there has been a virtual industry of interest and action created around the implications of his findings for the development of low income communities Yet there remains a paucity of detailed empirical effort testing and refining his ideas This book attempts to fill this gap Community Organizing distills lessons from a national demonstration program that employed a novel approach to community organizing consensus organizing Consensus organizing enhances social capital building both stronger internal ties and capacity in low income communities and fostering new relations bridges between residents of low income communities and larger metropolitan area support communities Using evaluation research and detailed comparative study of community development activity in three diverse demonstration sites Ross Gittell and Avis Vidal identify key elements of building social capital which strongly affect community development comprehension of community development credibility of effort and participants confidence competence and constructive critiques of efforts Other elements are more relevant to program management and implementation and include communication among participants congruence of program effort management of inherent contradiction and adjusting implementation to reflect local context This book describes the limits and promise of building social capital and will be of interest to community development students and professionals Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare Meredith Minkler, 2012-07-16 The third edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare provides new and more established ways to approach community building and organizing from collaborating with communities on assessment and issue selection to using the power of coalition building media advocacy and social media to enhance the effectiveness of such work With a strong emphasis on cultural relevance and humility this collection offers a wealth of case studies in areas ranging from childhood obesity to immigrant worker rights to health care reform A tool kit of appendixes includes guidelines for assessing coalition effectiveness exercises for critical reflection on our own power and privilege and training tools such as policy bingo From former organizer and now President Barack Obama to academics and professionals in the fields of public health social work urban planning and community psychology the book offers a comprehensive vision and on the ground examples of the many ways community building and organizing can help us address some of the most intractable health and social problems of our times Dr Minkler's course syllabus Although Dr Minkler has changed the order of some chapters in the syllabus to accommodate guest speakers and help students prep for the midterm assignment she uses she arranged the actual book layout in a way that should flow quite naturally if instructors wish to use it in the order in which chapters appear

by legendary social activist musician and author Kahn outlines many of the practical tactics organizers use but also emphasizes community organizing as a way of thinking and a way of life People Power Aaron Schutz, Mike Miller, 2015-04-27 Saul Alinsky according to Time Magazine in 1970 was a prophet of power to the people someone who has possibly antagonized more people than any other living American People Power introduces the major organizers who adopted and modified Alinsky's vision across the United States Fred Ross Cesar Chavez Dolores Huerta and the Community Service Organization and National Farm Workers Association Nicholas von Hoffman and the Woodlawn Organization Tom Gaudette and the Northwest Community Organization Ed Chambers Richard Harmon and the Industrial Areas Foundation Shel Trapp Gale Cincotta and National People's Action Heather Booth Midwest Academy and Citizen Action Wade Rathke and ACORN Weaving classic texts with interviews and their own context setting commentaries the editors of People Power provide the first comprehensive history of Alinsky based organizing in the tumultuous period from 1955 to 1980 when the key organizing groups in the United States took form Many of these selections previously available only on untranscribed audiotapes or in difficult to read mimeograph or Xerox formats appear in print here for the first time Community Organizing and Community Building for Health Meredith Minkler, 2005 The Roots of Community Organizing, 1917-1939 Neil Betten, Michael J. Austin, Robert Fisher, 1990-01-01 Today's community organizers and social planners have a tendency to ignore their antecedents and to reinvent the wheel What is found in textbooks today had its origins in the day to day trial and error experiences of community organizers in the 1920s and 1930s state Michael J Austin and Neil Betten in their Introduction to this pioneering study of community organization The historical analysis of the intellectual and practical roots of community organizing in the United States begins with urban political organizing in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the organizing of immigrant communities by the International Institutes beginning in 1910 and the Cincinnati Unit Experiment from 1917 to 1919 The authors and their collaborators focus on historical material that has received relatively little attention within the profession This includes the organizing manuals of Steiner McClenahan Hart Pettit and Lindeman the emergence in the 1920s of physical planning as practiced by city planners and social survey research as practiced by social planners and the social action approach to community organizing with special reference to organizing the working class There is clearly a dualism in this work comment Betten and Austin Not only does the book provide insight into the background of community organizing stemming from various social agencies but it also explores the activities of people and groups that were organizing communities but did not consider themselves community organizers These include the socialists involved with the Cincinnati Unit Experiment political machines and the Catholic Worker Movement While the study encompasses a time period from the last years of the nineteenth century to the end of the 1930s it focuses primarily on the years from 1917 to 1939 when community organizing associated with the social work profession was emerging The study ends in 1939 with the Lane Report which was the first effort to identify the educational foundations for training future community organizers Author note Neil Betten is Professor and Chair of the Department of History at Florida State University P Michael J Austin is Professor and Dean of the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work

Youth-Led Community Organizing Melvin Delgado, Lee Staples, 2008 Youth led organizing is increasingly receiving attention from scholars activists and the media Delgado and Staples have produced the first comprehensive study of this dynamic field Their well organized book takes an important step toward bridging the gap between academic knowledge and community practice in this growing area Tools for Radical Democracy Joan Minieri, Paul Getsos, Kim Klein, 2007-09-10 Tools for Radical Democracy is an essential resource for grassroots organizers and leaders students of activism and advocacy and anyone trying to increase the civic participation of ordinary people Authors Joan Minieri and Paul Getsos share stories and tools from their nationally recognized and award winning work of building a community led organization training community leaders and conducting campaigns that changed public policy and delivered concrete results to tens of thousands of people This how to manual includes In depth analysis of how to launch and win a campaign Tools and guidelines for training people to lead their own campaigns and organizations Insights for using technology effectively building more powerful alliances and engaging in the social justice movement Community Organizing David S. Walls, 2015-02-03 This incisive book provides a critical history and analysis of community organizing the tradition of bringing groups together to build power and forge grassroots leadership for social economic racial and environmental justice Begun by Saul Alinsky in the 1930s there are today nearly 200 institution based groups active in 40 U S states and the movement is spreading internationally David Walls charts how community organizing has transcended the neighborhood to seek power and influence at the metropolitan state and national levels together with such allies as unions and human rights advocates Some organizing networks have embraced these goals while others have been more cautious and the growing profile of community organizing has even charged political debate Importantly Walls engages social movements literature to bring insights to our understanding of community organizing networks their methods allies and opponents and to show how community organizing offers concepts and tools that are indispensable to a democratic strategy of social change Community Organizing will be essential reading for advanced undergraduates and graduate students of sociology social movements and social work It will also inform organizers and grassroots leaders as well as the elected officials and others who contend with them

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health Meredith Minkler, 1997 An important contribution to expanding the community organizing knowledge and skills base of students and practitioners in public health health education social work and related disciplines Dr Nicholas Freudenberg Professor of Community Health Education Hunter College CUNY Contesting Community James DeFilippis, Robert Fisher, Eric Shragge, 2010-05-19 What do community organizations and organizers do and what should they do For the past thirty years politicians academics advocates and activists have heralded community as a site and strategy for social change In contrast Contesting Community paints a more critical picture of community work which according to the authors in both theory and practice has amounted to less than the sum of its parts Their comparative study of efforts in the United States the United Kingdom and Canada describes and analyzes the limits and potential of this work Covering dozens of groups including ACORN Brooklyn s Fifth Avenue Committee and the Immigrant Workers Centre in Montreal and discussing alternative models this book is at once historical and contemporary global and local Contesting Community addresses one of the vital issues of our day the role and meaning of community in people s lives and in the larger political economy

A Theology of Community Organizing Chris Shannahan, 2013-11-12 The rising importance of community organizing in the US and more recently in Britain has coincided with the developing significance of social movements and identity politics debates about citizenship social capital civil society and religion in the public sphere At a time when participation in formal political process and membership of faith groups have both declined dramatically community organizing has provided a new opportunity for small community groups marginalized urban communities and people of faith to engage in effective political action through the developments of inter faith and cross cultural coalitions of groups In spite of its renewed popularity little critical attention has been paid to community organizing This book places community organizing within debates about the role of religion in the public sphere and the rise of public theology in recent years The book explores the history methodology and achievements of community organizing engaging in a series of conversations with key community organizers in the US and Britain This volume breaks new ground by beginning to articulate a cross cultural and inter faith Theology for Community Organizing that arises from fresh readings of Liberation Theology

Creative Community Organizing Si Kahn, 2010-02-15 Privatization has been on the right wing agenda for years Health care schools Social Security public lands the military prisons all are considered fair game Through stories analysis impassioned argument even song lyrics Si Kahn and Elizabeth Minnich show that corporations are by their very nature unable to fulfill effectively what have traditionally been the responsibilities of government They make a powerful case that the market is not the measure of all things and that a vital public sector is an indispensable component of a healthy democracy
