Community Theatre:

The Community Theatre in Theory and Practice Louise Burleigh Powell, 1917      Community Theatre Robert Edward Gard, Gertrude S. Burley, 1959      The Community Theatre in Theory and Practice Louise Burleigh, 1917      Community Theatre Eugene van Erven, 2002-09-11 Community theatre is an important device for communities to collectively share stories to participate in political dialogue and to break down the increasing exclusion of marginalised groups of citizens. It is practised all over the world by growing numbers of people. Published at the same time as a video of the same name, this is a unique record of these theatre groups in action. Based on van Erven's own travels and experiences working with community theatre groups in six very different countries, this is the first study of their work and the methodological traditions which have developed around the world.      The Community Theatre in Theory and Practice Louise Burleigh Powell, 2018-10-10 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work. This is the first book written about the production of Rapa Nui theatre, which is understood as a unique and culturally distinct performance tradition. Using a multilingual approach, this book journeys through Oceania, reclaiming a sense of connection and reflecting on synergies between performances of Oceanic cultures beyond imagined national boundaries. The author argues for a holistic and inclusive understanding of Rapa Nui theatre as encompassing and being inspired by diverse aspects of Rapa Nui performance, cultures, festivals, and art forms. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Indigenous studies, Pacific Island studies, performance, anthropology, theatre education, and Rapa Nui community, especially schoolchildren from the island who are learning about their own heritage.      Musicals! Robert Boland, Paul Argenti, 1997 They say no good deed goes unpunished and attorney Willa Jansson learns it the hard way when she agrees to represent the patient of psychiatrist Fred Hershey. She definitely owes him the favor, but has no idea what it will eventually cost her. Alan Miller's sports car allegedly went over an embankment onto the coastal highway below, landing atop another car and killing its driver. But there are no tire tracks in the field above and no witnesses to the event. Nor are Miller's injuries consistent with a car crash. Miller wasn't around to defend himself when the police showed up at the accident. Worse yet, he doesn't remember where he was When Miller is put under hypnosis he does account for his whereabouts but it seems so far fetched Miller himself doesn't want to believe it and Willa knows it will never stand up in court
