Comp Tales Introduction To College Composition Through Its Stories:

Comp Tales Richard H. Haswell, Min-Zhan Lu, 2000 Comp Tales serves two aims to collect good stories about teaching post secondary composition and to offer the kind of view and understanding of this profession that only oral anecdotes can provide This text is a collection of the stories that college writing teachers tell and retell stories that are actually told in the classroom in the halls over the tutor s table in committee rooms on street corners over the kitchen table etc The book also contains reflections about the tales by the storytellers and serious discussion about the role of story telling in composition by the editors First Semester Jessica Restaino, 2012-02-01 Jessica Restaino offers a snapshot of the first semester experiences of graduate student writing teachers as they navigate predetermined course syllabi and materials the pressures of grading the influences of foundational scholarship and their own classroom authority With rich qualitative data gathered from course observations interviews and correspondence Restaino traces four graduate students first experiences as teachers at a large public university Yet the circumstances and situations she relates will ring familiar at widely varying institutions First Semester Graduate Students Teaching Writing and the Challenge of Middle Ground presents a fresh and challenging theoretical approach to understanding and improving the preparation of graduate students for the writing classroom Restaino uses a three part theoretical construct labor action and work as defined in Hannah Arendt s work of political philosophy The Human Condition as a lens for reading graduate students struggles to balance their new responsibilities as teachers with their concurrent roles as students Arendt s concepts serve as access points for analysis raising important questions about graduate student writing teachers first classrooms and uncovering opportunities for improved support and preparation by university writing programs Writing Studies Research in Practice Lee

Nickoson, Mary P Sheridan, 2012-09-10 An essential reference for students and scholars exploring the methods and methodologies of writing research What does it mean to research writing today What are the practical and theoretical issues researchers face when approaching writing as they do What are the gains or limitations of applying particular methods and what might researchers be overlooking These questions and more are answered by the writing research field s leading scholars in Writing Studies Research in Practice Methods and Methodologies Editors Nickoson and Sheridan gather twenty chapters from leaders in writing research spanning topics from ethical considerations for researchers quantitative methods and activity analysis to interviewing and communitybased and Internet research While each chapter addresses a different subject the volume as a whole covers the range of methodologies technologies and approaches both old and new that writing researchers use and examines the ways in which contemporary writing research is understood practiced and represented An essential reference for experienced researchers and an invaluable tool to help novices understand research methods and methodologies Writing Studies Research in Practice includes established methods and knowledge while addressing the contemporary issues interests and concerns faced by writing researchers today A Critique of Anti-racism in Rhetoric and Composition Erec Smith, 2019-12-12 A Critique of Anti racism in Rhetoric and Composition The Semblance of Empowerment critiques current antiracist ideology in rhetoric and composition arguing that it inadvertently promotes a deficit model of empowerment for both students and scholars Erec Smith claims that empowerment theory which promotes individual communal and strategic efficacy is missing from most antiracist initiatives which instead often abide by what Smith refers to as a primacy of identity an over reliance on identity particularly a victimized identity to establish ethos Scholars of rhetoric composition communication and critical race theory will find this book particularly useful Second Language Writing Research Paul Kei Matsuda, Tony Silva, 2014-04-08 This book consists of original chapters on various methodological issues in second language writing research Beyond Outcomes Richard Haswell, 2001-05-30 Writing assessment programs help place entering and mid career students in composition courses at the appropriate level monitor the progress of those students and assist in placing them in writing courses throughout their undergraduate careers These same universities also have writing instruction programs which might include writing centers writing across the curriculum initiatives and freshman and advanced composition programs At many institutions though writing assessment is not necessarily considered fundamental to writing instruction and there is little communication between the assessment program and the composition program This book demonstrates that writing assessment and instruction programs may be successfully integrated The contributors analyze the development of the writing assessment and instruction program at Washington State University which is nationally recognized for its success In doing so they provide guidance to other institutions planning to develop similar integrated programs The volume argues that writing assessment and instruction should inform and influence each other that they should evolve together and that they should be developed locally By tracing the success of the WSU program the authors directly challenge the use of national packaged assessment programs such as standardized placement tests Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers Jackie Grutsch McKinney, 2013-04-15 Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers aims to inspire a re conception and re envisioning of the boundaries of writing center work Moving beyond the grand narrative of the writing center that it is a solely comfortable yet iconoclastic place where all students go to get one on one tutoring on their writing Grutsch McKinney shines light on other representations of writing center work Grutsch McKinney argues that this grand narrative neglects the extent to which writing center work is theoretically and pedagogically complex with ever changing work and conditions and results in a straitjacket for writing center scholars practitioners students and outsiders alike Peripheral Visions for Writing Centers makes the case for a broader narrative of writing center work that recognizes and theorizes the various spaces of writing center labor allows for professionalization of administrators and sees tutoring as just one way to perform writing center work Grutsch McKinney explores possibilities that lie outside the grand narrative allowing scholars and practitioners to open the field to a fuller richer and more realistic representation of their material labor and intellectual work Authorship in Composition Studies Tracy Hamler Carrick, Rebecca Moore

Dobrin,2005 This volume addresses the role of the English professor in teaching graduate students in the how to teach writing introductory courses The essays argue that far from a simple introduction about how to teach writing the courses often serve as an introduction to composition theory to research methodologies to pedagogical theory and to the histories of composition studies as a discipline Culture Shock and the Practice of Profession Virginia Anderson,Susan Romano,2006 Steps into the debate about how doctoral programs should prepare students for the profession Meaning and Time Kevin J. Porter,2002 The Writers Directory ,2013 Sentimental Attachments Janet Carey Eldred,2005 This book was written first and foremost for other writers begins Janet Carey Eldred s extraordinary work of blended genres For Eldred teachers of writing need to experience the art and craft of composing creative nonfiction and essays firsthand exploring multiple perspectives genres styles modes structures and subjects They will be at their best she argues if they enact what they profess Sentimental Attachments opens and closes with important and passionate arguments about why teachers of composition must also be writers of what Eldred calls lived experience At its center however the book offers a series of lyrical evocative exploratory essays that address a range of essential and complex questions How do we compose our personal and professional identities How do we represent our different selves without compromising other parts of our lives and perhaps even more important the lives of others How do we maintain a strong voice in the world without losing sight of other people places histories and ideas Like others who defy the conventional view that we must hold the personal separate from the political or the professional Janet Carey Eldred believes that teachers of writing must compose themselves as they help others to compose We are living drafts in progress she writes and in Sentimental Attachments she models the kinds of composition and revision that make life and the life of writing and teaching meaningful Imagining Rhetoric Janet Carey Eldred,Peter Mortensen,2002 Janet Eldred and Peter Mortensen examine the development of women s writing in the decades between the American Revolution and the Civil War and how women imagined using their education to further the civic aims of an idealistic new nation Bibliographic Index
