Perception of the Environment Tim Ingold, 2021-11-29 In this work Tim Ingold offers a persuasive new approach to understanding how human beings perceive their surroundings He argues that what we are used to calling cultural variation consists in the first place of variations in skill Neither innate nor acquired skills are grown incorporated into the human organism through practice and training in an environment They are thus as much biological as cultural To account for the generation of skills we have therefore to understand the dynamics of development And this in turn calls for an ecological approach that situates practitioners in the context of an active engagement with the constituents of their surroundings The twenty three essays comprising this book focus in turn on the procurement of livelihood on what it means to dwell and on the nature of skill weaving together approaches from social anthropology ecological psychology developmental biology and phenomenology in a way that has never been attempted before The book is set to revolutionise the way we think about what is biological and cultural in humans about evolution and history and indeed about what it means for human beings at once organisms and persons to inhabit an environment The Perception of the Environment will be essential reading not only for anthropologists but also for biologists psychologists archaeologists geographers and philosophers This edition includes a new Preface by the author

Armed Forces, Soldiers and Civil-Military Relations Gerhard Kümmler, Giuseppe Caforio, Christopher Dandeker, 2009-02-01 It is an honor for us to introduce this collection of essays which is dedicated to an old friend and colleague who is no longer with us It is an honor but also a pleasure because we feel like continuing a dialogue with Jürgen one that has never broken down over the years revisiting and recalling the different places and occasions where we met discussed collaborated and had fun We that is Giuseppe Caforio Christopher Dandeker and Gerhard Kümmler who have been friends and or colleagues of and research collaborators with Jürgen and who represent three prominent institutions and organizations with which Jürgen worked felt that this book is something we owe to Jürgen and we are grateful that many people who at different times and at different places had contact with Jürgen and his work were willing to contribute a chapter to this anthology Most of Jürgen's studies professional work and research activities took place at the Bundeswehr Institute of Social Sciences SOWI Jürgen born in 1938 had joined the Bundeswehr in 1957 and had already worked at the SOWI's predecessor institution the Scientific Institute for Education in the Armed Forces from 1971 onwards after having finished his university studies Since this institute was renamed SOWI in 1974 Jürgen belonged to the first generation of researchers that worked at the SOWI

Gregory of Nyssa: On the Human Image of God John Behr, 2023-02-22 This book presents the first modern critical edition of the work of Gregory of Nyssa On the Human Image of God formerly known as On the Making of Man De hominis opificio and the first English translation since the nineteenth century This treatise is one of the most important of Gregory's texts Paralleling the structure of Plato's Timaeus Gregory's work begins by offering two analyses of the human being The first presents the human being as the culmination of the ascent made by nature through the various levels of life and as made body and soul in the image of God The second considers why this is not immediately apparent the need for time to be able to grow individually and collectively to this status as the body of Christ the image of God and the role of sexuality within this growth The third part of the work brings both analyses together to see the same movement in the life span of each person The extensive introduction provided in this volume examines the philosophical and theological background of Gregory's text beginning with Anaxagoras Plato the Timaeus Philo and Origen and also compares aspects of Gregory's work with that of Irenaeus of Lyons and Maximus the Confessor Small Places, Large Issues - Second Edition Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2001-04-20 A revised and updated edition of this unique best selling guide to social and cultural anthropology Sentient Archaeologies Courtney Nimura, Rebecca O'Sullivan, Richard Bradley, 2023-07-15 Archaeology in the past century has seen a major shift from theoretical frameworks that treat the remains of past societies as static snapshots of particular moments in time to interpretations that prioritize change and variability Though established analytical concepts such as typology remain key parts of the archaeologist's investigative toolkit data gathering strategies and interpretative frameworks have become infused progressively with the concept that archaeology is living in the sense of both the objects of study and the discipline as a whole The significance for the field is that researchers across the world are integrating ideas informed by relational epistemologies and mutually constructive ontologies into their work from the initial stage of project design all the way down to post excavation interpretation This volume showcases examples of such work highlighting the utility of these ideas to exploring material both old and new The illuminating research and novel explanations presented contribute to resolving long standing problems in regional archaeologies across Africa Asia Australia Europe and Oceania In this way this volume reinvigorates approaches taken towards older material but also acts as a springboard for future innovative discussions of theory in archaeology and related disciplines Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford Anthropological Society of Oxford, 2000 JASO ,2000 Housing and Society ,1988 The Effects of Symmetrical Decorations on the Attractiveness of Faces and Abstract Designs Rodrigo Andrés Cárdenas, 2005 Poetic Spaces Sheelagh Alanna Frame, 1998 Gender Locales and Local Genders in Archaeology Tove Hjørungdal, 2005 This volume had its inception in an EAA session in Thessalonica Greece in September 2002 which covered issues of social theory and gender in Archaeology Of the 8 papers in this volume 4 were presented during the session and a further 4 were prepared especially for this publication Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, 2005-08-11 The second edition of this classic reference organizes and explains the most important resources dealing with the study of Africa It is intended for students teachers librarians and serious researchers and it covers works and surveys dealing with the entire African continent The introductory sections cover African studies indexes bibliographies handbooks guides and directories as well as electronic sources and Internet web sites The continuing chapters deal with specific types of materials such as statistics current events biography primary sources and government publications The main body of the work is an annotated overview of sources for disciplines in the humanities social sciences agriculture and ecology Chapters typically include

research guides directories surveys of the literature bibliographies indexes and abstracts key periodical titles and relevant Library of Congress subject headings Over half of the entries are either new or have been updated since the old edition and there is expanded coverage on volumes dedicated to the study of North Africa the growth of Islam in Africa and a tremendous increase in the number of electronic sources listed Rethinking Nationalism and Ethnicity Hans-Rudolf Wicker, 1997-10 While there has been a spate of books concerned with race and ethnicity in Europe more specifically this timely volume offers a broader perspective and positions issues of identity ethnicity multiculturalism xenophobia regionalism and ethnonationalism within the wider contexts of trans and supranationalism With the weakening of welfare states and the homogenizing influences of globalization nations within both Eastern and Western Europe are discovering that the battlefield of political action is being redefined and as a result emotional alliances threaten to bypass the democratic systems of the past Offering fresh insights that are both empirically and theoretically informed this book illuminates the processes and consequences of these new developments In particular it reviews Marx s Durkheim s and Simmel s theories on nationalism and national identity and presents case studies of Belgium Italy s Northern League right wing intellectual production in Russia and much more The Anthropology of Language Harriet Ottenheimer, 2006 This text provides an introduction to the field of linguistic anthropology which appeals to undergraduates from a wide variety of fields and at a wide variety of levels from freshmen to seniors This text comes with access to a companion website designed to make the intersection of linguistics and anthropology accessible and interesting to undergraduate students In addition to THE ANTHROPOLOGY OF LANGUAGE Harriet Ottenheimer has also created a workbook reader that is a perfect bundle option for this text See the supplement section for details Nigerian Journal of Social Sciences , 2007
