Higher Education, Place, and Career Development Rosie Alexander, 2024-11-21 Drawing connections between the findings of a research project following young graduates from the Scottish islands of Orkney and Shetland current international evidence and theoretical literature this book argues that understanding rural and island student transitions can expose the wider dynamics of place and mobility at play during student and early career experiences Highlighting the importance of a career perspective Rosie Alexander encourages readers to consider how career pathways develop across time and across transition points unsettling the notion of a straightforward transition through university into the workplace The book uncovers how student trajectories are developed through interweaving dynamics of relationships place and career routes and unpacks the implications for policymakers and practitioners It contends that a much greater spatial awareness is necessary to understand and support the educational and career pathways of higher education students This is a crucial read for higher education researchers policymakers and students interested in rurality as well as access to and transition from higher education

Localism Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee, 2011-06-09 This report finds that the Government's desire to deliver localism is neither supported consistently across Whitehall nor implemented coherently by each department of state MPs warn that the Minister for Decentralisation will need to bring coherence rigour and clear priorities to the Government's programme The MPs call for a more explicit statement about where the dividing line will be drawn between a central light touch framework for local services and unwarranted interference from ministers in local affairs So far the Government has shown itself all too eager to impose its preferences on local decision making Ministers have also introduced policies that circumvent rather than empower local government elected police commissioners free schools academies and health service reform threaten to fragment rather than integrate delivery of better public services at local level As devolution proceeds the manner in which local decisions are taken come under greater scrutiny Any reduction in the inspection and performance management required by Whitehall must be accompanied by stronger local democratic accountability Broadening the provider base for public services is an important plank of the government's decentralisation agenda but it remains unclear how far the Big Society can expand to take on services and functions shed by statutory bodies Localism should not be adopted purely as a way to curb public sector costs not least because the financial benefits of more tailored services may not offset the loss of efficiencies of scale Stimulating greater
