Performance in Four Army Jobs by Men at Different Aptitude (AFQT) Levels: 4. Relationships Between Performance Criteria Robert Vineberg,Elaine Taylor,1972 A study was made of approximately 1800 men with experience ranging to 20 years in five different Army MOSs to provide information about the performance and characteristics of effective and ineffective marginal personnel in the Army The study included a group of men with Armed Forces Qualification Test scores AFQT in the marginal range and a comparison group of men in the same jobs but in the upper range of AFQT scores Performance was measured by intensive job sample tests job knowledge tests and supervisor ratings Biographical questionnaires a battery of published and experimental tests and Army records provided information about background personal characteristics and military experiences The report examines the determinants of job behavior and describes the relationships among the three performance criteria used in the study job sample tests job knowledge tests and supervisor ratings Author

Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives Magda Nico,Ana Caetano,2021-05-12 Structure and Agency in Young People s Lives brings together different takes on the possible combinations of agency and structure in the life course thus rejecting the notion that young individuals are the single masters of their lives but also the view that their social destinies are completely out of their hands How did I get here This is a question young people have always asked themselves and is often asked by youth researchers There is no easy and single answer The lives that are told on one hand and their interpretation on the other may have the underlying idea of own doing or the idea of social determinism or more accurately and frequently a combination of the two This collection constitutes a comprehensive map on how to make sense of youth s biographies and trajectories it questions and reshapes the discussion on the role and responsibility of youth studies in the understanding of how people juggle opportunities and constraints and contributes to escaping what Furlong and Cartmel identified as the epistemological fallacy of late modernity in which young people find themselves responsible for collective failures or inevitabilities It can thus interest students researchers and professors youth workers and all of those who work for and with young people
