Handbook of Mobile Learning Zane L. Berge, Lin Muilenburg, 2013-06-19. Winner of the AECT Division of Distance Learning DDL Distance Education Book Award. This handbook provides a comprehensive compendium of research in all aspects of mobile learning, one of the most significant ongoing global developments in the entire field of education. Rather than focus on specific technologies, expert authors discuss how best to utilize technology in the service of improving teaching and learning. For more than a decade, researchers and practitioners have been exploring this area of study as the growing popularity of smartphones, tablets, and other such devices, as well as the increasingly sophisticated applications for these devices, has allowed educators to accommodate and support an increasingly mobile society. This handbook provides the first authoritative account of the theory and research that underlies mobile learning while also exemplifying models of current and future practice.

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in Their Lives, Schools and Societies Pille Valk, 2009. The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project Religion in Education: A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries. The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries: England, Estonia, France, Germany, The Netherlands, Norway, Russia, and Spain. The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education, religious education, sociology, political science, anthropology, psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the ir relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole California Agriculture ,2023-07 Resources in Education ,1997
