Artificial Intelligence for Strategic Communication Karen E. Sutherland, 2025-02-17 In an era where AI is revolutionising every aspect of communication, this groundbreaking research monograph provides an essential roadmap for navigating the intersection of artificial intelligence and strategic communication. Drawing on extensive primary research, including interviews with 41 experts and surveys of 400 professionals across three continents and eight countries, this book provides insights from relevant scholars, communication practitioners, and AI tool developers. This comprehensive guide combines scholarly rigour with practical application, presenting a data-informed Model for Practice that helps to withstand the constant evolution of AI technology. Each chapter delivers research-informed, actionable tools relating to the multifaceted field of strategic communication, including ethical practice, strategy development, content creation, evaluation, and continuous improvement. Bridging the gap between theoretical understanding and practical implementation, AI for Strategic Communication is an invaluable resource for strategic communication scholars, students, and practitioners essential for advancing careers in the age of AI. This work emerged from the need for a comprehensive source combining scholarly, practitioner, and AI developer perspectives on strategic communication from around the globe.

Engaging Audience M. Elizabeth Weiser, Brian Fehler, Angela Marta González, 2009 This collection of essays about audience awareness from professionals in the English public relations and writing fields is based on the latest work of scholars Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford. This collection builds upon Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford's groundbreaking work to examine the rhetorical concept of audience as it relates to twenty-first-century teaching and learning. Editors M. Elizabeth Weiser, Brian M. Fehler, and Angela M. González bring together compositionists from the departments of English, communications, public relations, and writing to offer insights that serve as a guide for incorporating audience awareness into the contemporary classroom. Contributors engage in a dialogue with Ede and Lunsford's previously published essays Audience Addressed, Audience Invoked, The Role of Audience in Composition Theory and Pedagogy, and Representing Audience. Successful discourse and disciplinary critique as well as their new essay Among the Audience. On audience in an age of new literacies written especially for this collection. Through these engagements contributors offer insights on audience from divergent perspectives: composition pedagogy, new media studies, service learning, and professional writing; diversity and rhetorical and literary theory that establish a third category in the addressed/invoked binary; an audience updated that takes various professional and cultural forms but is most evidently audience interacting.
