COMMUNICATING IN THE 21ST CENTURY

In 2024, about 66% of the world's total population has access to the Internet. This means that we need to feel comfortable in our digital environments, and to uphold our responsibilities as members of a growing international community.

DIGITAL LITERACY

Digital literacy involves much more than our ability to use technology like computers or mobile devices. Instead, it requires that we make active decisions about the communication we receive and send online.

GLOBAL DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP

We are all part of a global community of digital citizens. This means that we are all responsible for behaving respectfully, legally and safely online. Just as a good citizen would respect the rights of others in their community, we need to learn to respect the rights of others online.

“THE INTERNET IS BECOMING THE TOWN SQUARE FOR THE GLOBAL VILLAGE OF TOMORROW.”

~ Bill Gates
