Intercultural Communication Competence

Guo-Ming Chen, Xiaodong Dai, 2014-05-02 Intercultural communication competence is an indispensable ability for people to interact appropriately and effectively across nations and regions in the globalized world. Competent intercultural communication enables people to reach mutual understanding as well as reciprocal relationships. In recent decades, considerable progress has been made in the research of intercultural communication competence. However, due to its complexity, many problems remain unanswered and need to be addressed. This book seeks to conceptualize intercultural communication competence from diverse perspectives, explore its re-conceptualization in globalization, and investigate its development in cultural contexts and interaction scenarios. A group of leading international scholars in different academic disciplines join to map out a comprehensive picture, providing an in-depth and up-to-date work on intercultural communication competence. The book adopts an interdisciplinary approach and enhances readers' understanding on the concept of intercultural communication competence. It is a useful source for educators, researchers, students, and professionals.

Communicating Across Cultures, Second Edition Stella Ting-Toomey, Tenzin Dorjee, 2018-10-04

Description: This highly regarded text, now revised and expanded with 50% new material, helps students and professionals mindfully build their knowledge and competencies for effective intercultural communication on any setting. The authors' comprehensive, updated theoretical framework, integrative identity negotiation theory, reveals how both verbal and nonverbal communication are affected by multilayered facets of identity. Written in a candid conversational style, the book is rich with engaging examples illustrating cultural conflicts and misunderstandings that arise in workplace, educational, interpersonal, and community contexts. Readers learn how to transform polarized conversations into successful intercultural engagements by combining culture-specific knowledge with mindful listening and communication skills.

Key Words: intercultural communication, cross-cultural communication, human communication, communication skills, cultural competence, ethnic relations, ethnic studies, multicultural counseling, international business relations, cultural diversity, cross-cultural psychology, ethnography, mindful communication, mindfulness, intergroup communication, integrative identity negotiation theory, acculturation, adjustment, immigration, immigrants, listening skills, textbooks, texts, college classes, college courses, college students, undergraduates, graduates, foreign students, refugees, social psychology, sociolinguistics, international competence.

Cultural Competence in Process and Practice Juliet Cassuto Rothman, 2008. Now more than ever, the population's social workers must be trained to work with and represent the broadest spectrum of humanity in ethnicity, culture, race, religion, worldview, gender, sexual orientation, ability, and in life experiences. This text will prepare students to work with any population they will encounter in their professional career. It is divided into 3 parts: Unit 1 covers social work processes; Unit 2 contains student case examples; and Unit 3 contains student exercises.
