Millington, 2023-09-26 The Invention of Terrorism in France 1904 1939 investigates the political and social imaginaries of terrorism in the early twentieth century Chris Millington traces the development of how the French conceived of terrorism from the late nineteenth century notion that terrorism was the deed of the mad anarchist bomber to the fraught political clashes of the 1930s when terrorism came to be understood as a political act perpetrated against French interests by organized international movements Through a close analysis of a series of terrorist incidents and representations thereof in public discourse and the press the book argues that contemporary ideas of terrorism in France as unFrench that is contrary to the ideas and values however defined that make up Frenchness emerged in the interwar years and subsequently took root long before the terrorist campaigns of Algerian nationalists during the 1950s and 1960s Millington conceptualizes terrorism not only as the act itself but also as a political and cultural construction of violence composed from a variety of discourses and deployed in particular circumstances by commentators witnesses and perpetrators In doing so he argues that the political and cultural battles inherent to perceptions of terrorism lay bare numerous concerns not least anxieties over immigration antiparliamentarianism representations of gender and the future of European peace The Routledge

Project (Examining ISIS's perception of religious texts through rhetorical discourse analysis) Dr. Sabah Harahsheh, 2023-12-04 This book deconstructs ISIS's narrative in order to demonstrate how ISIS appropriates the past interprets the present and visualises the future for Arab Muslims This project depends on the rhetorical analysis by taking all speeches written and delivered by Abu Muhammad al Adnani ISIS s media spokesman from 2011 until 2016 as a case study ISIS s rhetoric shows that the group has been frozen in time and space it relies on opposite dualities in managing the affairs of life and puts the laws of God against the laws of man as a belief to establish the Caliphate To do that it borrows heavily but selectively from the Islamic laws based on the teachings of the Qur n and Sunnah and imposes the past on the present to reach the utopia it promises to establish The analysis aims to highlight the congruences if any between the view of some people and the vision of ISIS in terms of the audience s interpretations of such extremist ideology regarding the other Shar a Caliphate and Jihad The analysis acknowledges the intricate and complex network that connects extremist ideas and ideologies with existing mainstream ideas such as the anti Shi ite sentiment The analysis demonstrates the need for developing a participatory communicative space for dialogue among people and between people and other actors be it state international organisations or civil society
