Weaver, II,1989 Journal of Consumer Satisfaction, Dissatisfaction, and Complaining Behavior ,1996 A Study to Identify Racial Or Sexual Stereotypical Behavior in the Newbery Award Books Wynona Mae Kimmel,1990 Different but Equal Kay Payne,2001-02-28 This study presents a theoretical and practical discussion of the changes that have occurred between men and women and how the sexes relate to one another from social political and ethical perspectives Not only do men and women reflect different gender roles through communication but they are also impacted by communication about gender especially from the media Gender differences in communication have gained political importance due to the increasingly relevant issues of sexual harassment and political correctness These social and political changes have influenced our value systems and have given the study of gendered communication an ethical importance Payne argues that religious ideology is an important aspect of gendered development and that biological psychological social and cultural phenomena also affect sex roles This volume will appeal to scholars and students in the communications disciplines as well as psychologists and sociologists Organized around three major themes the construction of the gendered self the differences between men and women as they relate to one another through language power and nonverbal communication and the effects of gendered communication in leadership and the media this work covers much ground on the topic of communication between the sexes   Gender Communication Laurie P. Arliss,1991

The Gender Communication Connection Teri Kwal Gamble,Michael W. Gamble,2014-03-01 The authors explore the many ways that gender and communication intersect and affect each other Every chapter encourages a consideration of how gender attitudes and practices past and current influence personal notions of what it means not only to be female and male but feminine and masculine The second edition of this student friendly and accessible text is filled with contemporary examples activities and exercises to help students put theoretical concepts into practice   Communications and the law ,1992   Groups in Context Gerald L. Wilson,2001 This volume takes a balanced approach blending theory and research with practical skills and applications It reflects the author s belief that small group communication is best understood in context whether in the workplace in neighbourhoods in churches social groups or civic organizations   . ,1976

Communication and Gender Lea P. Stewart,Pamela Cooper,1995-11   The Psychology of Women Margaret W. Matlin,1993 This highly respected best selling text offers students an enjoyable extraordinarily well written introduction to the Psychology of Women Appropriate for students from a wide variety of backgrounds this comprehensive book captures womens own experiences through direct quotations and an emphasis on empirical research Known for its balance of scholarship readability and inclusion of various kinds of women Margaret Matlin continues to lead the way for the Psychology of Women course Meticulously updated to reflect the most current research PSYCHOLOGY OF WOMEN was written with a genuine interest in and understanding of the students for whom the book is written Her text includes a chapter on old age as well as discussions of topics such as welfare issues and pregnancy and women s retirement which are central in many women s lives but not consistently covered in other texts
