Communication In Eastern Europe The Role Of History Culture And Media In Contemporary Conflicts:

Communication in Eastern Europe Fred L. Casmir, 1995 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Romanian Mass Media and Cultural Development David Berry, 2017-07-05 This compelling book assesses the development of the mass media since the Romanian Revolution in December 1989 and the media's impact on cultural development the public sphere civil society and democracy It controversially claims that Romania's failure to experience a thoroughgoing enlightenment project in its entire history remains a major obstacle for producing democratic ownership of the media and democratic development of society Analyzing both the print and broadcast media and their respective effects on development the book also discusses the effects of Romanian law on media and societal development ethics and media responsibilities It concludes however that far from having an absolutely negative impact on Romanian post communism the media has helped produce a contradictory empirical form that equally contains positive moments in terms of subjective cultural development

Communications Media, Globalization, and Empire Oliver Boyd-Barrett, 2007-02-20 An exploration of the political economy of media and to what extent global communications and popular entertainment continue to serve elite interests In Communications Media Globalization and Empire an international team of experts analyzes and critiques the political economy of media communications worldwide Their analysis takes particular account of the sometimes conflicting pressures of globalization and neo imperialism The first is commonly defined as the dismantling of barriers to trade and cultural exchange and responds significantly to lobbying of the world's largest corporations including media corporations The second concerns US pursuit of national security interests as response to terrorism at one level and at others to intensifying competition among both nations and corporations for global natural resources

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Central and Eastern Europe After Transition Wojciech Sadurski, 2016-04-08 How have national identities changed developed and reacted in the wake of transition from communism to democracy in Central and Eastern Europe Central and Eastern Europe After Transition defines and examines new autonomous differences adopted at the state and the supranational level in the post transitional phase of the post Communist area and considers their impact on constitutions democracy and legal culture With representative contributions from older and newer EU members the book provides a broad set of cultural points for reference Its comparative and interdisciplinary approach includes a useful selection of bibliographical resources specifically devoted to the Central Eastern European countries transitions

Media and Public Relations Research in Post-Socialist Societies Michael

R. Finch, Marta N. Lukacovic, Maureen C. Minielli, Sergei A. Samoilenko, 2021-03-17 Media and Public Relations Research in Post Socialist Societies tracks the birth development and contemporary expansion of communication research with a focus on public relations and media research in post socialist societies This collection illuminates the current state of media and communication studies in Eastern Europe Central Europe and Central Asia Contributors discuss and demonstrate various issues of disciplinary roots and tensions institutional constraints study development and contemporary status This book also illustrates diverse types of traditional and contemporary communication studies from humanities and social science perspectives ranging from linguistics to health communication This collection focuses on both traditional and modern scholarship that has arisen due to international scholarly efforts the advent of technology and national research interests Readers will have the opportunity to intellectually discuss the conceptual theoretical and practical issues that have occurred within the past twenty years regarding public relations mass communication and media studies in post socialist societies The analyses in this book lead readers to consider potential resolutions to some of the current dialectical tensions that are affecting post socialist communication studies and contemplate how reflecting on these tensions informs the broader field of communication worldwide

Traditions of Writing Research Charles Bazerman, Robert Krut, Karen Lunsford, Susan McLeod, Suzie Null, Paul Rogers, Amanda Stansell, 2009-10-16 Traditions of Writing Research reflects the different styles of work offered at the Writing Research Across Borders conference Organized by Charles Bazerman one of the pre eminent scholars in writing studies the conference facilitated an unprecedented gathering of writing researchers Representing the best of the works presented this collection focuses solely on writing research in its lifespan scope bringing together writing researchers interested in early childhood through adult writing practices It brings together differing research traditions and offers a broad international scope with contributor presenters including top international researchers in the field The volume s opening section presents writing research agendas from different regions and research groups The next section addresses the national political and historical contexts that shape educational institutions and the writing initiatives developed there The following sections represent a wide range of research approaches for investigating writing processes and practices in primary secondary and higher education The volume ends with theoretical and methodological reflections This exemplary collection like the conference that it grew out of will bring new perspectives to the rich dialogue of contemporary research on writing and advance understanding of this complex and important human activity

Culture and Technology in the New Europe Laura B. Lengel, 2000-04-13 Culture and Technology in the New Europe presents the insights of an international group of academic researchers and media practitioners who examine the impact of technology on East Central Europe South Eastern Europe the Newly Independent States and the Russian Federation Drawing from the expertise of authors from and working in the region the book addresses concerns that the New Europe faces at the eve of the Third Millennium and a decade after the fall of communist rule Such concerns include access to information and communication technology and the culturally specific discourses articulated through media and technology While the book focuses on information and communication reforms and the development of a participatory democracy are examined The book is distinguished by diverse studies ranging from the problems of Cyber Hate from and about the New Europe to online activism in war torn Kosovo Bosnia Croatia and Yugoslavia to how digital media art articulates new cultural and creative freedoms once silenced by the Soviet regime Finally the book looks to the future of media technology and communication in the New Europe particularly the gaps between post socialist nations and those more technologically advantaged and how these gaps can be narrowed or eradicated in the Third Millennium *Official Program ...
